INTRODUCTION.

THE present volume, which relates to the episcopate of Dr. Thomas Cooper, is part of an endeavour to calendar the episcopal records at Lincoln for the period 1545 to 1660. Unfortunately the act books of the bishops during the greater part of that time have been lost, and the chronicle of events which they recorded has to be painfully reconstructed from other sources. A volume dealing with the years 1547 to 1570 was intended to be the first of the series, but it was found impossible to collect the necessary materials without the risk of exhausting the patience of the members of the Society.

An account is given below of the several sources from which the volume has been compiled. The original intention was to print no more than the bishop's Act Book and Register, with the Libri Cleri of 1576 and 1580, but it soon became clear that the Act Book was by no means complete, and other records have been printed with a view to supplementing its deficiencies. In addition to what is printed here a large amount of illustrative matter relating to the period has had to be reserved for another volume.

BISHOP THOMAS COOPER'S ACT BOOK.

This is a large folio, consisting of 124 paper leaves, and measuring 16 $\frac{3}{8}$ by 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches. It was found in a dilapidated state, but has lately been restored by the staff at Timberland who are repairing the diocesan records, and rebound. The leaves were separate and had been sewn by overcasting by a former binder. There is a separate pagination for the sections relating to the cathedral church, the several archdeaconries and the ordinations. For the sake of convenience the leaves have been renumbered consecutively from the beginning to the end. Each section has an index of its own, except the archdeaconry of Huntingdon. Several leaves are missing :

Archdeaconry of Lincoln—the last leaf (49), which contained six entries, as is shewn by the index (see page 33, n. 1).

Archdeaconry of Leicester—leaves 58 and 59, containing twenty entries (see pages 39 and 40), a leaf between 61 and 62, containing ten entries (see page 42), and the last leaf (66), containing two entries (see page 45).

Archdeaconry of Huntingdon—leaf 114 (see page 68). In this case there is no index to shew what parishes the missing entries related to, but eight institutions (seven on pages 68 and 69, and one on page 328), gathered from other sources, were probably recorded on the missing leaf.

Archdeaconry of Stow—this section is altogether missing (see page 74).

INTRODUCTION.

It is probable that in no case does the record begin at the commencement of Cooper's episcopate, and in the case of the archdeaconry of Buckingham there are no entries for the first fifteen months. The entries in each section begin part of the way down the first leaf or on its dorse, and generally without a title, as if it were intended to supply the earlier entries at another time. The Additional Admissions (see pages 309 to 330) shew that there were institutions both earlier and later than those recorded in the Act Book.

In all cases the bishop probably performed the act of institution himself, for there is no mention throughout the record of any commission for the purpose. This conclusion is reinforced by the entries in Varia (see below), and by the endorsements on many of the presentation deeds. When the bishop himself was the patron the formula is, 'the bishop collated and instituted A.B.,' when another patron presented it runs, 'C.D. was admitted and instituted,' without specifying by whom the act was done. In the admissions to vicarages an oath was exacted from the clerk that he would reside and minister in person in his benefice according to the form of the sacred constitutions published in that behalf. This oath was not required in the case of other promotions. The oath of canonical obedience was demanded from all alike. The presentees to benefices were instituted in their own persons, unless the contrary is stated in these pages.

The most probable explanation of the various deficiencies of the record, excepting the loss of leaves, is that the entries were transcribed from time to time from memoranda made when the acts were done, some of which memoranda were mislaid or overlooked.

VARIA.

This is a volume consisting of 166 parchment folios, and measuring 14 by 11½ inches. It contains various matters—institutions, memoranda and ordinations—during several vacancies in the see, and at other times, from 1449 to 1585. Folios 134 to 142*d.* contain institutions in the time of Cooper, but the record is by no means complete for the period that it covers, and it is difficult to say upon what principle the entries have been selected. It is mentioned in each entry that the presentee subscribed the articles of religion agreed to by the bishops in the sacred synod convoked by royal authority, and made oath to keep and defend the doctrine contained in them, and also to renounce all foreign power, and to acknowledge the royal supremacy. The usual oath as to residence was exacted from presentees to vicarages. The acts were done by the bishop himself. These institutions have been collated with those in the Act Book.

BISHOP THOMAS COOPER'S REGISTER.

This is a volume consisting of 115 paper leaves, and measuring 11¾ by 8¾ inches. It has suffered from damp, and the ink in some parts is very faint. The writing is often crowded and somewhat difficult to decipher. The manuscript has lately been repaired, and it will shortly be rebound. The first part has been numbered by leaves 1 to 35, and the second part by pages 1 to 148. The volume has now been renumbered throughout by leaves for the sake of convenience. The first part, which belongs to the episcopate of Bishop Bullingham, has been left for treatment in a future volume, except that the documents to which the clergy were required to subscribe have been printed (see pages 103 to 108). This earlier part is almost entirely occupied with subscriptions of the clergy with their own hands to the oath of supremacy and the articles, etc.

The second part, which relates to Cooper's episcopate, is of a much more miscellaneous character, as pages 109 to 147 shew. Here too the subscriptions are made by the clergy with their own hands. In all cases the actual words of assent have been printed in the original Latin, since in some instances at least they indicate varying degrees of acquiescence in the formularies. Most of the signatories subscribe 'volens'; some write 'libens,' 'lubens,' 'volenti animo,' 'volunter,' 'voluntarie,' or 'liberiter'; one has 'mea sponte volens'; about 16 will not go beyond 'subscripsi' or 'subscribo'; one (page 143) cautiously writes, 'Prefixis articulis quatenus cum dei verbo consentiant volens subscribo.'

It was thought unnecessary to print the entries of the Register relating to admissions to benefices and to ordinations, since the particulars had already been given from the Act Book, but the two records have been collated, and the words of subscription have been added in brackets after the corresponding entries in the Act Book. The other entries in the Register are calendared in pages 109 to 147. Near the end of the manuscript there are three letters of Bishop Cooper's in English (see pages 144 and 145). The Articles printed on pages 103 to 106 are those prescribed to ministers in the Interpretations and Further Considerations, drawn up in 1560 by the archbishop of Canterbury and the bishops, for securing better order in the Church. A translation is given below the text, and the writer is indebted to Archdeacon Jeudwine for some of the renderings. Unfortunately the Register ends in September, 1577, and there is no other book of subscriptions during the period covered by this volume.

The Register affords evidence that Cooper, like Parkhurst of Norwich, and other bishops, in spite of the queen's disapproval, encouraged 'prophesyings,' for certain clerks are enjoined to frequent 'the exercise' under pain of law (see page 114). At the same time he was anxious to suppress what was dangerous in them, for the vicar of Grantham is enjoined 'to deale in his cure, and not to speak at all in the exercise until his moderacion shalbe better knowne' (ibid.). The Liber Cleri of 1576 mentions that Martin Crosfeild, the incumbent of Bracebridge and Claypole, was the prolocutor in the public exercise (see page 159). Cooper directed that the prolocutor or moderator should comment not only on the arguments used, but also on the lives and general conduct of the speakers—a privilege which might conceivably lead to abuse.¹

REGISTER, 1580-1618.

This is a volume consisting of 234 paper leaves, of which the first leaf is missing, and measuring 12 by 8 inches. The manuscript, which is excellently written, has lately been repaired and rebound. Leaves 2 to 18 belong to Cooper's time, and are calendared on pages 149 to 156.

LIBER CLERI, 1576.

This is a volume consisting of 39 paper leaves, which measure 11 by 8½ inches. It has lately been repaired, and is in very good condition. There is at Lincoln part of a second copy of the Liber, which has been badly damaged by damp, and is only partly legible. It consists of 10 paper leaves, measuring $12\frac{3}{4}$ by $8\frac{3}{4}$ inches, and contains the returns for the following deaneries: Louthesk (part), Calcewaith, Candleshoe, Bolingbroke, and part of Horncastle, Hill and Gartree. The Liber is of very great interest, giving, as it does, a careful account of the clergy in the county of Lincoln. Unfortunately the record for the other counties that were at that time included in the diocese cannot be found either at Lincoln or in London. In the Lambeth Palace Library (Cartæ Miscellaneæ, vol. 13, part 2) there are similar returns relating to some of the other dioceses, but they are not quite so full as the Lincoln manuscript. Cardwell gives the form of a letter of the archbishop, asking for a similar return in 1561:—

These shall be to desire and require you to certify me so speedily, as you may, of all and singular parsons, vicars, and curates within your — and how many of them be resident; and where the absents do dwell and remain; how many of them be neither priests nor deacons; noting the names of all such as be learned and able to preach, whether married or unmarried, of what degree, and which of them (being already licensed to preach) do preach accordingly. And finally how many of them do commonly keep hospitality. And that your certification in that behalf be conceived and made according to the form herein inclosed. And thus trusting of your diligence herein, I wish you well to fare (Documentary Annals, vol. i, page 309).

This letter differs in this respect from the earlier form that, to gratify the queen's strong impressions on the subject of marriage of the clergy, it inquires 'whether married or unmarried.' In the present return there is no mention of hospitality. On the other hand, particulars are given about the due ministration of the sacraments and other rites of the Church. The queen's Injunctions of 1559 order

That every parson, vicar, curate, and stipendary priest, being under the degree of a master of arts, shall provide and have of his own, within three months after this visitation, the New Testament both in Latin and in English with paraphrases upon the same, conferring the one with the other. And the bishops and other ordinaries by themselves or their officers, in their synods and visitations, shall examine the said ecclesiastical persons, how they have profited in the study of holy scripture. (Cardwell, Documentary Annals, vol. i, page 218).

The examination was evidently dreaded in some instances, for we are told that the incumbent of Ingoldmells and Panton 'withdrew before his examination in spite of being admonished to undergo it' (page 189). The rector of Careby, also, is stated to have withdrawn before his examination (see page 211). The examination was not, apparently, confined to persons below the degree of master of arts, for particulars are sometimes given as to the knowledge of masters. The bachelors and doctors of theology are the only classes about whose learning no details are given.

The particulars about the marriage of the clergy are interesting. Dr. Frere (History of the English Church, 1558-1625, pages 107, 108) states that in the metropolitical visitation of 1561-2 it was found that one quarter of the clergy were married in the archdeaconry of Stow, and only 9 out of 129 in Leicestershire. These numbers are quoted as being probably below the average for the country. By 1576 the proportion of married clergymen had increased, for the Liber shows that about two-thirds had taken wives.

It was laid down in 1559, in the queen's Injunctions, that because there hath grown offence, and some slander to the church by lack of discreet and sober behaviour in many ministers of the church, both in choosing of their wives, and indiscreet living with them, the remedy whereof is necessary to be sought : it is thought therefore very necessary that no manner of priest or deacon shall hereafter take to his wife any manner of woman without the advice and allowance first had upon good examination by the bishop of the same diocese, and two justices of the peace of the same shire, dwelling next to the place, where the same woman hath made her most abode before her marriage ; nor without the good will of the parents of the said woman, if she have any living, or two of the next of her kinsfolks, or, for lack of knowledge of such, of her master or mistress, where she serveth. And before he shall be contracted in any place, he shall make a good and certain proof thereof to the minister, or to the congregation assembled for that purpose, which shall be upon some holy-day, where divers may be present. And if any shall do otherwise, that then they shall not be permitted to minister either the word or the sacraments of the church, nor shall be capable of any ecclesiastical benefice. And for the manner of marriages of any bishops, the same shall be allowed and approved by the metropolitan of the province, and also by such commissioners as the queen's majesty shall thereunto appoint. And if any master or dean, or any head of any college shall purpose to marry, the same shall not be allowed, but by such to whom the visitation of the same doth properly belong, who shall in any wise provide that the same tend not to the hinderance of their house. (Cardwell, Documentary Annals, vol. i, pages 224, 225).

A license for the marriage of a clerk will be found at page 307, and there are some certificates of justices of the peace in the episcopal registry at Lincoln, shewing that the strange provisions in the Injunctions were observed as late as the end of the reign of Elizabeth.

The number of clergymen who were qualified to preach was probably 57, though 6 of these are doubtful. Thirteen preached without a licence in their several benefices, and 4 others in unspecified places. In the metropolitan visitation of 1561-2, it was found that out of 129 clergymen in the archdeaconry of Leicester, there were only 15 preachers; and Bishop Cooper's letters (see pages 144, 145) shew that he found it difficult to provide preachers for that archdeaconry.

The number of vacant benefices is noticeable—78 out of 544. The Clerical Subsidy Rolls at the Public Record Office shew that a large proportion of the benefices in the diocese was vacant throughout Elizabeth's reign, being so poor that it was impossible to collect from them the subsidies granted by the clergy to the queen. It is hoped that a volume of these subsidies will appear before long.

It seems that all those who appeared conformed and duly ministered the sacraments. In some cases it is added that the clerk says the public prayers, and uses the rites and ceremonies prescribed by public authority. Possibly those who did not conform absented themselves. The only case of difficulty that is specified is that of the well-known John Dee of whom it is stated that he is 'vehemently suspected in religion; an astronomer, not a theologian' (see page 201). A later case of departure from the 'received religion' (religio recepta) is recorded at page 152.

The tables in Appendix I. summarise the evidence contained in the Liber, and a note about the suffragan bishops of Lincoln, by whom many of the incumbents had been ordained, is given in Appendix V.

LIBER CLERI, 1580.

This manuscript consists of 22 paper leaves, which measure $12\frac{1}{2}$ by $8\frac{1}{4}$ inches. It has been very badly damaged by damp, but has lately been repaired so far as is possible. Many of the leaves have disappeared altogether, and the upper halves of the first seven that remain have perished, while the other fifteen leaves are all more or less injured. The ink in many parts is very faint. The task of reconstructing the missing leaves from other sources was found to be impossible, but where any part of an entry remains, it has generally been possible to supply the missing words from the sources specified in the footnotes. Like the Liber Cleri of 1576, it probably covered the archdeacons of Lincoln and Stow, but the part relating to Stow has perished.

No date is mentioned in the manuscript, but internal evidence shews the year to have been 1580. On the one hand incumbents appeared who were instituted 25 April,¹ 18 May,² and 21 May,³ 1580; and curates who were admitted 1, 27 and 29 June.⁴ Richard Lane, who was instituted to the rectory of Ingoldsby 21 May, is recorded as seemingly having been sworn on 26 June with respect to the appointment of a proctor to appear for him.⁵ On the other hand Alan Holdernes, who was vicar of South Elkington at the time of the record, had vacated the benefice on 21 July⁶; and John Arnold, who is entered as rector of Saltfleetby St. Peter's, was dead 19 August.⁷ Robert Sarrett's name had been entered as rector of Withern, but it was afterwards struck out and the word 'obiit' written against it, and his successor was instituted 19 July.⁸ Fulk Warden, rector of Tothill, was admonished to appear, probably at the bishop's court at Lincoln, on 9 July.⁹

This evidence, which is confirmed by other entries, points to the end of June and the beginning of July, 1580, as the date of the record, and it may safely be concluded that it is the account of the clergy compiled at the bishop's triennial visitation. A few entries are inconsistent with this date, namely, entries of a few events in July,¹⁰ August¹¹ and September,¹² 1580, one in 1582,¹³ and one in 1586.¹⁴ It is easy to understand how the events in the summer of 1580 might be entered after the end of the visitation in order to complete the record. The entries of 1582 and 1586 are not so easily accounted for. They are seemingly made by the original scribe, and they must be either later insertions or clerical errors.

The Liber is so incomplete that no attempt has been made to compile statistics from it. The word 'prox', which appears at times, probably stands for 'procuratio,' signifying that the clerk appeared by a proctor. For this the fee was 4s. 8d. The usual fee was 8d., but pluralists had to pay an additional sum of 3s. The phrases 'he has for orders,' or 'he has for admission,' signify that the clerk had not exhibited his letters of orders or his record of admission, and that he had to produce them. It will be noticed that several curates are 'tolerated,' and that a few readers (prelectores) were employed in the diocese.

GRANTS OF ADVOWSON AND PRESENTATION DEEDS.

These documents are in the episcopal registry at Lincoln, and extend from about A.D. 1474 to the present day. They have been sorted into years down to A.D. 1670, and are being cleaned and repaired. The draft of a calendar of some thousands of them has been prepared by Canon R. E. G. Cole, and others have been calendared by the writer, who has also revised the calendar for the period covered by this volume, and has collated the deeds with the Act Book. These deeds are of great value, since they help to supply the omissions of the Act Book. The deeds of the next period are of even greater interest, for many of them are endorsed with particulars of the lives of the presentees.

INSTITUTION BONDS & RESIGNATIONS.

These also are kept in the episcopal registry, and have lately been repaired and arranged.

ARCHBISHOP PARKER'S REGISTER.

It seemed convenient to supply from this Register, which is kept at Lambeth, the admissions to benefices and other business during the vacancy of the see of Lincoln after the translation of Bishop Bullingham. Since the text of the present volume was printed the Canterbury and York Society have issued a transcript of the Register under the editorship of Dr. Frere.

CROWN PRESENTATIONS.

These have been taken from a beautifully written volume in the British Museum, namely Lansdowne MS. 443. MSS. 444 and 445 in the same collection carry the calendar down to the end of the reign of Elizabeth. It has not been found possible to verify the entries in the calendar by reference to the Patent Rolls, but whenever evidence has been found for or against the statements of the manuscript, it has been given in the footnotes. It is probable that some of the clerks who received presentations to benefices from the crown were never admitted. This is probably accounted for by the practice of giving a presentation while a benefice was full, with a view to its being acted upon when a vacancy occurred. An extreme instance occurs on page 329, where it appears that Boniface Martin was instituted to the rectory of Pilham, 7 April, 1574, whereas the presentation was made 2 July, 7 Elizabeth [A.D. 1565].

BISHOP COOPER.

Thomas Cooper,¹ who was born about 1517 at Oxford, was the son of a Bliss), vol. i, pages 608, 609; Cooper's Athenæ Cantabrigienses, vol. ii, pages 166, 167; Harrington's Nugæ Antiquæ, vol. i, page 69; Cassan's Lives of the Bishops of Winchester, vol. ii, pages 36-48; Milner's History of Winchester, vol. i, page 290; Bloxam's Register of Magdalen College, Oxford; and Macray's continuation of the same; Diocesan Histories: Lincoln, by Archdeacon Perry.

very poor tailor in Cat Street. In 1531 he became a chorister in Magdalen College school, and was admitted B.A. 7 July, 1539. In the latter year he was elected probationer of Magdalen College, and in 1540 perpetual fellow. He proceeded M.A. 6 June, 1543. Leaving his fellowship about 1546, he devoted himself to the study of litteræ humaniores and medicine. From 1549 to 1558 and from 1559 to 1568 he was master of the choir school, where one of his pupils was William Camden. In 1549-1550 he successfully resisted an attempt made by Dr. Cox to stop grammar teaching at the expense of Magdalen College, and the school continued.¹

In 1548 Cooper published an edition of Elyot's Latin Dictionary under the title of Bibliotheca Eliotæ. Sive Dictionarium Lat. et Angl. auctum et emend. per Tho. Cooper, and in 1565 expanded it into the Thesaurus Linguae Romanæ et Britannicæ, which was republished in 1573, 1578 and 1584. This work, which was commonly known as Cooper's Dictionary, was much esteemed by Queen Elizabeth, and led to the author's promotion in the Church. Cooper also completed Lanquet's Chronicle of the World, publishing it in 1549. Two more editions of the same work appeared in 1560 and 1565 under the title of Cooper's Chronicle.

In 1562 Cooper published An Answer in Defence of the Truth against the Apology of Private Mass, the Apology in question being a reply to Bishop Jewel's famous Apology. In 1589 he was again engaged in controversy, writing an Admonition to the People of England, etc., in reply to the libels of Martin Mar-prelate, who retorted in a pamphlet, entitled *Ha' ye any work for the Cooper?*²

Being in sympathy with the reforming party in the Church, Cooper, on the accession of Queen Mary, departed from his intention of seeking ordination, and supplicated for the degree of bachelor of medicine and for leave to practice in June, 1556, 3 November, 1559, and 3 July, 1566. On the accession of Queen Elizabeth, recurring to his original purpose, he was ordained and, 18 March, 1566-7, was admitted B.D. and D.D. In 1567 he became dean of Christ Church, and was commissary or vice-chancellor 1567-1570. When Queen Elizabeth came to Oxford to visit the Earl of Leicester, who was the chancellor of the University, Cooper composed and read an address of congratulation in Latin, which is still preserved in manuscript at Corpus Christi College. In 1569 he was appointed to the deanery of Gloucester.

On 4th February, 1570-1, Cooper was elected to the bishopric of Lincoln, and the royal assent was given by letters patent on 19 February.⁴ The election was confirmed in the church of St. Mary-le-Bow, London, on 23 February, John Flower, clerk, M.A., being the proctor for the bishop-elect.⁵ On the following day, Saturday, the feast of St. Matthias, Cooper was consecrated⁶ in Lambeth Palace chapel by Archbishop Parker, Robert Horne, bishop of Winchester, and Nicholas Bullingham, who had just been translated from Lincoln to Worcester. On Sunday, 11 March, he was installed in his cathedral church in the person of John Flower, his proctor, and on Thursday, 28 June, in his own person.¹ On 27 September, 1571, he was incorporated D.D. in the University of Cambridge cum osculo pacis.² On 4 May, 1573, he was presented by Archbishop Parker to the prebend of Bugden, and installed 19 May.

About thirty years before this time the counties of Northampton, Rutland and Oxford had been separated from the see of Lincoln, but the diocese still contained the counties of Lincoln, Leicester, Bedford, Buckingham, Huntingdon and part of Hertford. Besides being excessively large and unmanageable, it had the additional disadvantage of being divided into a northern part and a southern part, separated from one another by a piece of the new diocese of Peterborough. Bishop Cooper spent most of his time at the manor of Buckden or Bugden near Huntingdon, which was more or less in the middle of his unwieldy diocese, and was also within easy reach of London. It was his practice to stay at the palace at Lincoln or, a few miles away, at the episcopal manor of Nettleham, during some of the summer months every other year.³ In his first year he was at Lincoln in June, as has just been mentioned. In 1573 he was there from about 3 July to 22 August. Again, in 1575 and 1577, he spent most of June and the three following months at Lincoln. In 1579, and also in 1580, the year of his third triennial visitation, he was at Nettleham for about four months on each occasion. In 1581 there was only a very brief visit in September, but in 1583 there was a long sojourn at Nettleham from April to September.

The bishop visited his diocese in the June of his first year, and part of the record of the visitation of the archdeacons of Bedford and Buckingham is preserved in the episcopal registry. The Articles to be enquired of in the [triennial] Visitation in 1574 have lately been reprinted by Dr. Frere,⁴ but no record of the visitation remains at Lincoln. There is in the registry an incomplete record of the third triennial visitation of the archdeacons of Lincoln and Stow in 1580, and the Liber Cleri of that year (see pages xiv, 215-239) undoubtedly belongs to it. The mandates for induction (see pages 5-72 passim) shew that the archdeacons were inhibited in view of the bishop's primary visitation from 18 April to 23 June, 1571, and of his triennial visitations from 4 April to 20 July, 1574, from the last day of February, 1579-80, to 4 August, 1580, and from 5 March, 1582-3, to 28 August, 1583. There is no suggestion of inhibition in the archdeaconry of Huntingdon in 1574, nor do the induction clauses refer to a visitation of any of the archdeacons in 1577.

Cooper had a grant from Sir Gilbert Dethick, Garter King of Arms, dated 26 May, 1572, of the following arms: Azure, a fess between three pelicans vulning themselves argent. No crest or motto are mentioned in the patent.⁵

In 1573 the bishop published a Brief Exposition of the lessons read on Sundays, which was so highly esteemed by Archbishop Parker that he tried to get a copy of it placed in every parish church, 'for that the more simple the doctrine was to the people, the sooner might they be edified, and in an obedience reposed.¹ He also published an Injunction to be observed throughout the Diocese in 1577, Certain Sermons wherein is contained the Defence of the Gospel against cavils and false accusations . . . by friends and favourers of the Church of Rome in 1580, and a Brief Homily to be read in all parish churches before the administration of the Lord's Supper when the minister had no preacher's licence. This homily is described by the late Canon Overton as 'plain, spiritual and earnest.'²

On 12 March, 1583-4, Cooper's connection with the diocese of Lincoln was ended by his election to the bishopric of Winchester. The see of Lincoln had been greatly impoverished by the greed of Henry VIII and Edward VI, and again by Queen Elizabeth; and from being one of the wealthiest sees it had become one of the poorest. Winchester, on the other hand, was so rich a see that a witticism of Bishop Edyngdon's was constantly quoted to the effect that 'Canterbury had the highest rack, but Winchester had the deepest manger.' When it was repeated to Cooper he replied that he found that much of the provender had been swept out of the manger.³ Nevertheless, his will shews that he had a considerable estate to dispose of.

Cooper's married life was far from happy, owing to the profligacy of his wife. Wood says,

The whole university in reverence for the man, and the indignity of the matter, offered to separate him from his wife by public authority, and to set him free, being the innocent party. Cooper refused, saying, "To divorce and marry again, he would not charge his conscience with so great a scandal." (Athenæ Oxonienses, ed. Bliss, vol. i, page 611).

On one occasion his wife, in a paroxysm of passion, tore up half his Thesaurus and threw it into the fire. He patiently set to work and rewrote it.⁴ It may be hoped that Cooper's goodness and gentleness won his wife to better things, for he reposed much confidence in her at the last, and made her sole executrix of his will.

The issue of the marriage was two daughters. The one, Elizabeth Cooper, married Dr. John Belley or Bellay, D.C.L., provost of Oriel College, Oxford, 1566-1573, a master in chancery, and incorporated D.C.L. at Cambridge 19 February, 1573-4.⁵ Belley was the second son of John Belley of Haslebury, co. Somerset, and his pedigree appears in Camden's Visitation of Huntingdonshire,⁶ 1613, where his arms (granted in 1602) are given as, Argent, 3 pellets, a chief engrailed sable, quartering the arms of Cooper, Azure, a fesse or between three pelicans vulning themselves argent. Belley was appointed by Cooper as his chancellor, vicar-general and principal official, probably in 1572,⁶ and prebendary of Langford Manor, 12 October, 1574 (see page 2). He lived at Great Paxton in Huntingdonshire, a few miles from Buckden. The wills of himself and his wife, abstracts of which are printed in Appendix IV, give the names of their children. Mrs. Belley was buried at Great Paxton 21 April, 1608, and Dr. Belley, 17 September, 1609.

⁶ He appears as vicar-general, on 26 July, 1572, in a Court Book of 1571-2, folio 81. There is also a grant of the last two offices, dated 27 May, 1583 (see page 156), but this must be a re-appointment.

Cooper's other daughter, Mary, who died before April, 1594,¹ married John Gouldwell of Great Shelford, co. Cambridge, whose pedigree appears in the visitation of that county in 1619, where the arms are given as, Azure, a chief or, over all a lion rampant argent, billetée sable.²

Cooper died at Winchester, on 29 April, 1594. His will, which is given in Appendix IV, has annexed to it a schedule of 'particulars of [the bishop's] chiefest estate and substaunce of [his] goods and chattells and credettes with [his] private estimacion of their value.' This schedule contains interesting lists of silver plate and armour, and also of horses specified by name. Mention is made of a beaker, parcel gilt, and of a little graven bowl without a cover, 'which I gave to Mr. Doctor Belly my sonne in law at his goying from me 8 Aprill 1594,' a reference to what may, perhaps, have been their final parting.

The bishop was buried at Winchester, on the south side of the cathedral choir, near the bishop's seat, where a stone, which has now disappeared, was placed with the following inscription on a brass plate running round it :

Hic jacet Thomas Cooper, olim Lincolniensis, nuper Wintoniensis Episcopus, munificentissimus, doctissimus, vigilantissimus Præsul, qui religiosissime in Domino obiit April. 29, A.D. 1594.

The late Archdeacon Perry says⁴ that Cooper took a moderate line in divinity, and only contended for the lawfulness of the Church establishment, without advocating the divine claims of the Church. As has already been said, he approved of the 'prophesyings,' and there is ample evidence in this volume that he was at pains to encourage learning amongst the clergy.

The writer has been fortunate in finding a seal of Bishop Cooper's attached to a grant to the archbishop of Canterbury, dated 18 April, 1571, eight weeks after the bishop's consecration (see page 242). The design—Our Lord delivering to St. Peter, who is kneeling, the commission PASCE OVES MEAS, with five sheep below, and the legend PREDICATE EVANGELIUM at the top—is interesting as shewing Cooper's conception of 'the office and work of a bishop in the Church of God.'

Writing of Cooper, Wood says :

I have heard some reverend and ancient divines of this university say, (as they had heard it from others who knew the man,) that at what time Dr. Cooper was to leave Oxon, to go to the see of Lincoln, he did humbly confess, in his farewel sermon to the university, that he was born of very mean parents in Cat-street, that he had undergone several mean and servile offices in Magdalen college, till by the favour of friends he was advanced to be fellow and schoolmaster. * * * The course of his life in Oxon was very commendable, and in some sort, saint-like, if it be saint-like to live unrepensible, to bear a cross patiently, and to forgive great injuries freely, this man's example was without pattern. (Athenæ Oxonienses, ed. Bliss, vol. i, page 109).

INTRODUCTION.

Humble, patient and forgiving, grave, learned and diligent, he was one of the best of the Elizabethan prelates, and no unworthy member of the long line of the bishops of Lincoln.

The writer wishes to express his sense of indebtedness to the late Bishop of Lincoln, and to the present Bishop, and also to Mr. A. E. T. Jourdain and Mr. W. W. Smith, the registrars of the diocese, for the facility of access to the diocesan records which has been afforded to him. His thanks are due to the Archdeacon of Lincoln, who kindly lent the engraving from which the frontispiece has been reproduced. He feels also that he ought not to pass by without notice the careful work of his clerks, who shew at least as deep an interest in the business of the sixteenth century as in that of the twentieth.

[ADMISSIONS TO BENEFICES IN THE ARCHDEACONRY OF STOW
—RECONSTRUCTION OF BISHOP COOPER'S ACT BOOK.]

[The section of the Act Book containing the admissions to benefices in the archdeaconry of Stow is missing, and the record has been reconstructed, so far as possible, in the following pages from the sources specified below.¹]

A.D. 1572.

Adam Squier, M.A., to the rectory of Fillingham, vac. by the resig. of John Piers, S.T.P. P.—Adam Squier, master or warden of Balliol College, Oxford, and the fellows of the same.² 24 April.* (P.D., 1572, no. 23).

John Sudlowe, cl., to the rectory of Fiskerton, co. Lincoln, vac. by death. P.—John Peerson³ of Nettleham, co. Lincoln, 'yeman,' and Richard Anderson of Peterborough, co. Northampton, 'mercer,' by a grant of next presentation, dated 10 Dec., 1 Edward VI [A.D. 1547], made to them by Gerard Carleton, late dean of Peterborough, and the chapter there. At Buckden, 10 June. (P.D., 1573,⁴ nos. 43, 44.) [Præfatis articulis volens subscripsi (Reg. 39d.)].

* Mandate to A. Stow.

² The P.D. is dated in the college chapel, 20 April, 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], and sealed with what is probably the original thirteenth century common seal of the college. The seal is a very fine pointed oval, measuring three inches from top to bottom, and two inches in breadth. Having been somewhat broken, it is difficult to decipher, and the following description is taken from Birch's Catalogue of Seals in the MS. Department of the British Museum:—The Virgin, crowned, seated on a throne under a trefoiled arch with church-like canopy elaborately detailed; holding on her left knee the Divine Child, with nimbus; in her right hand a ball or orb. On each side, on a shaft which supports the trefoiled arch, a shield of arms—left, three garbs; right, two piles meeting towards the base. Below, two kneeling figures—that on the right John Balliol of Barnard Castle, founder, in armour, with a shield of arms: an orle (Balliol); that on the left his wife, the lady Devorguilla, holding by the left hand a shield of arms: a lion rampant (Galloway). Each of these figures is holding up the hand, supporting a model of the collegiate buildings (thereby indicated to be dedicated to the Virgin), which has a bold trefoiled arch for its base, two tiers of upright beams or timber work, and over the roof, along the ridge, a frieze or entablature inscribed:—DOM' SCOLARIŪ D' BALL'O. The background behind the Virgin is hatched lozenge. In the lower half of the seal, and over the canopy, the background is replenished with sprigs of foliage. The legend round the seal is:—S' : 9'E : D' : BAL' : SCVTA : NOTAT :

SṪ : PIA : ṼGO : DOMṼ : Ṫ : DĀTES (i.e., SIGILLUM COMMUNE DE BALLIOLO. SCUTA NOTANT STANTES, PIA VIRGO, DOMUM TIBI DANTES). I am indebted to H. I. Bell, esq., of the British Museum, for supplying the description of the seal, and also to Bodley's Librarian.

³ Described as 'senior' in the grant of 1547.

¹ '24 Mar.' in Reg. (fo. 101*d.*). The sequence of entries in Reg. show that its reading is probably correct.

⁴ 'Deacon' in Reg.

A.D. 1576, THE [blank] YEAR OF THE CONSECRATION OF THE LORD THOMAS COOPER BY DIVINE PERMISSION BISHOP OF LINCOLN.

APPROPRIATION OF THE PARISH CHURCH OF ELLINGTON, CO. HUNTINGDON.

To¹ all the sons of holy Mother Church to whom these our present letters shall come, Thomas by Divine permission Bishop of Lincoln sendeth greeting :—

BE it known unto you that on 13 February, A.D. 1576, in the church or chapel of our manor of Buckden, before us, sitting as judge, having taken the within-named notary² as the writer of our acts, and in the presence of the within-named witnesses³—Andrew Pearne, S.T.P., master or warden of the college commonly called Peter-house in the University of Cambridge, presented in writing a certain supplication in these words :—

REVEREND Father in Christ, Whereas the most serene Princess Elizabeth, by the grace of God, Queen, etc., Defender of the Faith,⁴ has given and granted to us, Andrew Perne, S.T.P., the master, and the fellows of the said college. the parish church of Ellington, in your diocese of Lincoln, which was of her royal patronage, in pure and perpetual alms, with all its tithes, fruits, profits, emoluments and rights, etc., as it plainly appears in her letters patent under the great seal, dated 5 March, 16 Elizabeth, by reason of which the cure of the souls of the parishioners there lies upon us ; We, considering it right that they who enjoy the profit should also bear the burden, and wishing as far as in us lies to provide that that cure which heretofore has been performed by the rector should for the future be performed by a perpetual vicar, especially as the revenues, etc., are abundantly sufficient to support the cure and the burdens incumbent on it,—We therefore humbly supplicate that you will ordain, found and establish a perpetual vicarage in the said church of Ellington, and assign to the said vicar and his successors a fitting and competent portion out of the revenues of the said church, and decree as to your lordship shall seem best :—

HAVING weighed therefore maturely the matter of this supplication, as well as other considerations us in this behalf moving, we have proceeded to the ordination of a perpetual vicarage in the church of Ellington, and for its firm establishment have made decree, as follows:—We, Thomas by Divine permission Bishop of Lincoln, rightly and lawfully proceeding in a certain matter of the establishment and endowment of a perpetual vicarage in the church of Ellington, and the ordination of a perpetual vicar in the same, and the assignment of a portion to him, which has come for decision before us, commending the laudable proposal of the said master and fellows, [Folio 108d.] the patrons and proprietaries of that church, who seek not their own, but the things of Jesus Christ, and considering that the said benefice is sufficiently productive both for them and for the vicar to be ordained in it, they themselves as rectors and proprietaries by their supplication expressly assenting to the foundation of a vicarage and its sufficient endowment out of the revenues of the said church, think good to ordain a perpetual vicar there, and to assign to him out of the revenues, etc., a competent and sufficient portion for his own maintenance and the support of the burdens incumbent on the office, being favourably inclined thereto by their prayers and supplications, and with the concurrence of all who by right or custom had a claim to be cited to concur, and with all other due observances required in such a case, decree accordingly in this manner :—

IMPRIMIS, that henceforth there shall be in the church of Ellington a perpetual vicarage, and a perpetual vicar who shall have the cure of the souls of the parishioners, the collation to which perpetual vicarage and the presentation of a perpetual vicar shall rest with the master and fellows of the said college and their successors, but whose admission and induction shall belong to us and our archdeacon respectively and our successors.

ITEM, we decree and ordain that the said vicar shall have for his portion the sum of 20*l.* a year, which we consider sufficient for his support and for bearing the burdens incumbent on him, and with which we endow the said vicarage, to be paid by the rector or proprietaries of the church or their deputy, by equal portions, at the four usual terms of the year, viz., at the feast of St. Michael the Archangel. at the Nativity of the Lord, at the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, and at the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, or within fifteen days immediately following each feast, i.e., 5*l.* in counted coin to be paid faithfully and effectually to the vicar and his successors in the said church. And this sum we ordain that the said perpetual vicars shall have and receive for themselves and their own sustenance and for the support of the other burdens incumbent on them and written below :—

WE will that, should the said vicarage become vacant by death or otherwise, the rectors shall not be held bound to pay the next succeeding vicar for the period of vacancy, but only from the date of his institution and induction, but may retain part of the endowment for the payment of the priest who shall administer the cure.

PROVIDED always, and we hereby decree and ordain that when and as often as the said vicarage shall become vacant by death, resignation, cession, or in any other way, whereby the firstfruits [Folio 109] become due according to statute to the queen's majesty, the said rectors or proprietaries shall be held bound to pay the same, and to discharge the vicar from time to time. The vicar however shall bear the burden of paying the tenths due yearly from the said vicarage to the crown, as well as subsidies and other burdens, and shall discharge the rectors from them. Likewise he shall pay the sum of five shillings to us and our successors, bishops of Lincoln, and the sum of 13*s.*

2*d.* to the archdeacon of the place, as procurations and synodals yearly for ever, and shall discharge the rectors.

MOREOVER we decree and ordain that the said vicar shall have a competent dwelling-house in some convenient place within the precincts of the parish, to be built and erected, as soon as conveniently may be, at the cost and expense of the said rectors, with a garden adjacent thereto. for the residence and habitation of the said vicar and his successors, and that he shall hold and possess it wholly, freely, peaceably and quietly. But when it is once built the vicar shall maintain and repair it at his own cost.

ALL and each of which matters above-mentioned. done, decreed, and ordained by us, the said bishop, we will. appoint, decree and ordain to be observed and carried out, and to have the force of perpetual continuance, by this our final decree which we make and promulge in these writings. Done as above-written and recited, the day, month, year and place aforesaid.

1. Sacra⁷ scriptura in se continet omnem doctrinam pietatis ex qua sufficienter et omnis error convinci possit et veritas stabiliri.

TRANSLATION.

1. Holy Scripture containeth in itself all godly doctrine, and from it sufficiently may both every error be confuted and truth established.

² This is the form of the oath prescribed in Elizabeth's Supremacy Act, restoring Ancient Jurisdiction, which was passed in January, 1558-9. The Act is printed by Gee and Hardy, pages 442ff.

³⁻³ 'testify and declare'—Hardy and Gee.

2. Simbolum nicenum Athanasii et quod Communiter apostolorum dicitur continent in se brevissime articulos fidei nostre passim in scripturis ostensos qui istis non crediderunt inter veros Catholicos non sunt recipiendi.
 3. Ecclesia Christi est in qua purum verbum predicatur et sacramenta juxta Christi ordinationem administrantur et in qua clavium auctoritas retinetur.
 4. Quevis Ecclesia particularis auctoritatem habet instituendi mutandi et abrogandi ceremonias et ritus ecclesiasticos, modo ad decorum ordinem, et edificationem fiat.
 5. Christus tantum duo sacramenta expresse nobis Commendat, Baptisma, et Eucharistiam que conferunt gratiam rite sumentibus, etiamsi malus sit minister : et non prosunt indigne suscipientibus quantumvis bonus sit minister.
 6. Laudandus est ecclesie mos baptizandi parvulos et retinendus est.
 7. Cena dominica non est tantum symbolum mutue benevolentie Christianorum inter se, sed magis symbolum nostre redemptionis per Christi mortem, et nostre coniunctionis cum Christo ubi fidelibus vere datur et exhibetur Communio corporis et sanguinis Domini.
 8. Sacramentum eucharistie neque ex usu primitive ecclesie aut servabatur, aut circumferebatur, vel elevebatur ut adoretur.
2. The Nicene Creed, the Athanasian, and that which is commonly called the Apostles' Creed contain in themselves very briefly the articles of our faith in sundry places set forth in Scripture, and they who have not believed them are not to be received as true Catholics.
 3. The Church of Christ is that in which the pure Word of God is preached and the sacraments are ministered according to Christ's ordinance, and in which the power of the keys is retained.
 4. Each particular Church hath authority to institute change and abrogate ecclesiastical ceremonies and rites, so that it be done for seemly order and edification.
 5. Christ expressly ordaineth for us two Sacraments only, Baptism and the Eucharist, which confer grace on those who duly partake of them, even though the minister may be evil ; and profit not those who unworthily partake of them be the minister ever so good.
 6. The custom of the church in baptizing children is laudable and to be retained.
 7. The Supper of the Lord is not only a symbol of the mutual goodwill of Christians among themselves, but is rather a symbol of our redemption by the death of Christ, and of our communion with Christ : wherein to the faithful is truly given and displayed the partaking of the Body and Blood of the Lord.
 8. The Sacrament of the Eucharist by the use of the primitive Church was neither reserved, nor carried about, nor lifted up in order that it might be adored,

9. Missa (que consuevit a sacerdotibus dici) non erat a Christo instituta, sed a multis Romanis pontificibus confarcinata, nec est eucharistia ex se sacrificium propitiatorium (sic) pro vivis et mortuis, sed recordatio sacrificii semel peracti.
10. Scholastica transubstantiatio panis et vini in corpus et sanguinem Christi probari non potest ex sacris litteris.

Folio 31.

11. Non omne peccatum mortale seu voluntarie perpetratum post baptismum est irremissibile et peccatum in spiritum sanctum.
 12. Post acceptum spiritum sanctum potest homo peccare et denuo recipere, nemoque sine peccato vivit, quamvis regeneratis in Christo non imputetur.
 13. Justificatio ex sola fide, est certissima doctrina Christianorum.
 14. Elizabetha regina Anglie est unicus et supremus gubernator huius Regni et omnium dominiorum et regionum suarum quarumcumque tam in rebus et Causis ecclesiasticis quam temporalibus.
 15. Verbum dei non prohibet feminarum regimen, cui obediendum est iuxta ordinationem dei.
 16. Romanus Pontifex nullam iurisdictionem habet in hoc regno Anglie, nec alia quecumque potestas extranea.
 17. Leges civiles possunt Christianos propter flagitiis (sic) morte punire.
9. The Mass (as by priests it is used to be called) was not ordained by Christ, but put together by divers Bishops of Rome ; nor is the Eucharist of itself a propitiatory sacrifice for the quick and dead, but the remembrance of a sacrifice once made.
 10. The transubstantiation (as taught by the schoolmen) of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ cannot be proved from holy writ.
 11. Not every deadly sin or sin willingly committed after Baptism is unpardonable, and sin against the Holy Ghost.
 12. After receiving the Holy Ghost a man may sin and be again renewed: and no man liveth without sin, albeit it is not imputed to those who are regenerate in Christ.
 13. Justification by faith alone is the most sure doctrine of Christians.
 14. Elizabeth. queen of England, is the only and supreme governor of this realm and of all other her dominions and countries as well in ecclesiastical matters and causes as in temporal.
 15. The Word of God prohibiteth not the governance of a woman, to whom obedience is due according to God's ordinance.
 16. The Bishop of Rome hath no jurisdiction within this realm of England, nor hath any other foreign power.
 17. Civil laws may punish Christians with death for crimes.

18. Christianis licet ex iussu principis bella gerere, et ex iusta causa iurare et propria possidere.
19. Doctrina scholasticorum de purgatorio et invocatione divorum nullum habet fundamentum ex verbo dei.
20. Preceptum dei est ut que leguntur in ecclesia, illa lingua proferantur, que ab ecclesia intelliguntur (sic).
21. Absque externa et legitima vocatione, non licet cuiquam sese ingerere in aliquod ministerium ecclesiasticum velulare.
22. Matrimonium inter Christianos legitime iuxta verbum dei initum et contractum esse indissolubile, nec per traditiones hominum unquam convellendum.

Celibatus nulli hominum statui precipitur ex verbo dei, neque ministris ecclesie ex eodem iniungi.

Hec omnia vera esse et publice docenda profiteor, eaque iuxta datam mihi facultatem et eruditionem tuebor et docebo hancque meam confessionem manus mee subscriptione testificor, contrariamque doctrinam abolendam esse iudico et detestor.

18. It is lawful for Christians at the commandment of the prince to wage war, and to take oath for just cause, and to possess property.
 19. The doctrine of the schoolmen concerning purgatory and the invocation of saints hath no foundation in the Word of God.
 20. It is a precept of God that whatsoever is read in the Church, should be uttered in the tongue which is understood by the Church.
 21. It is not lawful for any one, without an outward and lawful calling, to thrust himself into any ministry ecclesiastical or secular.
 22. Marriage between Christians, lawfully entered upon and contracted according to the Word of God, is indissoluble, nor ever to be annulled by the traditions of men.

Celibacy is not commanded for any estate of men by the Word of God, nor [is it commanded] that it should be enjoined on the ministers of the Church on the authority of the same.

I profess that all these things are true and to be publicly taught, and I will defend and teach them according to the power and learning given unto me; and I testify to this my profession by subscribing it with mine own hand, and I declare that the contrary doctrine ought to be abolished, and I solemnly renounce it.

12 April. Acts had (habita) before Master John Belley, LL.D., vicar general in spirituals, principal official and commissary, lawfully deputed, in the prebendal church of Buckden, of his mere office, sitting there as judge, in the presence of me Robert Bond, public notary, taken as writer of the acts.

The office of the bishop against John Tailforde, cl., rector of Wyburton in the diocese of Lincoln.—The said John appeared personally, and made oath faithfully to answer to certain articles objected by the bishop of his mere office, remaining in the custody of the registrar. He answereth as followeth—

To the first and second articles—he saith that they contain truth in them.

To the third—he confesseth that it is true.

To the fourth—he answereth that he hath been often admonished to reside personally, or at least it hath come to his notice that he hath been summoned to reside personally in the said rectory, but for certain reasons him moving he hath utterly refused to reside or make residence, as at the present time he putteth it off and refuseth.

To the fifth—he answereth that the Quenes Iniunctions nor the orders ecclesiastical for thadministration of divine service hath not ben done in his said Church of Wyburton as his parishiners have to him complayned but when he hath come thither himself which was but seldome he hath found a Curate there but not such an one as he was enioyned by the B. to serve there.

Folio 76d.

To the sixth—he answereth that true it is the said parishiners of Wyburton doe want a sufficient parson to be personally resident to enstructe them.

To the seventh—he saith that it containeth some truth, but he saith that either ones in a year or ij yeres he hath come thither & taried ij, iiij, or vj daies at the uttermost, and that a Curate there he leaveth but not such one as is able to enstruct.

To the eighth—he saith that it containeth some truth.

To the ninth—he answereth that the common voyce & fame is that all thes obiections unto (sic) proponed are true.

Whereupon, being questioned by the judge as to whether he had anything to say for himself wherefore on the pretext of the premises he ought not to be removed from and deprived of his said rectory, and alleging, proponing or saying nothing effectual for himself, the judge decreed that he should be deprived of his said rectory, etc., and pronounced the church to be vacant, etc.

Monday, 23 July. Before the bishop sitting in the parlour within his manor of Buckden, against Robert Cheveney, cl., vicar of Tilton, co. Leicester, in a cause of adultery, the said Cheveney appeared personally. Cheveney answered before the commissary of the archdeacon of Leicester, etc., as by the following acts done before the same commissary appears—

In the visitation of the archdeacon of Leicester, 27 March, 1576.

Tylton—John Faucett and William Pawmer, churchwardens ; William Knighte and Fabian Burduit, jurati.

They say upon their oath that the vicar of Tilton hath comitted adultery with Elizabeth Willemott (as she saith), and she claimeth marriage of him. On 13 April, 1576, the vicar appeared in the church of St. Martin in the town of Leicester, before the judge (domino), holding court, and the judge tendered the oath to him to answer concerning the articles, etc., exhibited by the churchwardens, and admonished him to appear in his usual dwelling-house to undergo examination at one p.m. the same day. At which time and place he appeared again, and confessed se carnaliter cognovisse dictam Elizabetham (which confession the judge accepted), but utterly denies a contract. Whereupon the judge admonished the vicar to be present at the next court of instance to see to further procedure according to the exigency of the law. On the last day of April the said Elizabeth appeared, and confesses that fornication was committed between her and the vicar of Tilton ; she alledges moreover marriage or at least espousals contracted between them. Whereupon she prayed that he might be charged on oath by the office of the judge to keep such contract of marriage ; and, further, be restrained in the meantime by the authority of the judge from making a contract with another person or solemnizing marriage.

And at her petition the judge decreed that he should be cited, etc.

It agrees with the original,

Jo. Gote, public notary.

At the petition of the said commissary the bishop granted letters to attach the same [vicar], and by the said attachment he now appeared and submitted himself, etc. Whereupon the bishop suspended him from celebrating divine service until he should otherwise see fit; and he ordered him to appear personally on Monday, 20 Aug. next, to hear his final decree against him, etc.

¹ The year to which this and the two following letters should be assigned is uncertain. In the Register they follow the entry of 8 July, 1573, printed above. Barber was archdeacon of Leicester during the whole of Cooper's episcopate. The reason of Elmar's inclusion in the commission is not apparent. John Londe became prebendary of Leicester St. Margaret in 1560, and John Robinson was collated to the prebend 29 March, 1580. These dates point to the letters being earlier than 1580.

Monition of Thomas bishop of Lincoln to the dean [folio 3d.] or, in his absence, the subdean or, in their absence, the president, and the chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln, of his intended ordinary visitation, and citing them, and through them all dignitaries, archdeacons, prebendaries, vicars choral, provosts, clerks, officials, and ministers, whether by notice at the time of divine service, or by affixing it to their several stalls in the choir, or at the houses where they commonly dwell, or by any other means, to appear in the chapter-house on Monday, 16th May next, between the hours of 9 and 11 a.m., to submit to his visitation as ordinary, and to exhibit their titles to their offices, their pluralities, dispensations, graces, privileges, and other documents, as well as their letters of orders, and to answer to certain other articles touching the welfare of their souls and the reformation of their morals, and other serious and urgent matters concerning the state and dignity of the cathedral church. [Folio 4] Any one failing to appear in person at the place and time shall be liable to the penalty of deprivation. Meanwhile in view of the visitation the dean and chapter are inhibited from doing anything in prejudice of it. Given under the bishop's seal, 14 April, 1580, in the 10th year of his consecration.

On Wednesday, 15 June, in the chapter-house, at the usual hour, Master John Robinsonne, S.T.P., precentor and canon of the cathedral church of Lincoln, commissary or visitor of the bishop in the presence of Thomas Harris, public notary, acting as scribe and actuary in the absence of me, Thomas Tailior, public notary, prorogued the visitation and reserved the penalties pronounced at the session of 16 May to the morrow, viz. 16 June, [folio 4d.] and admonished all concerned to attend.

On Thursday, 16 June, before Master John Belley, LL.D., vicar-general of Thomas bishop of Lincoln, sitting as judge, in the presence of Thomas Tailior and Francis Bullingham, public notaries and registrars, preconization was made of all those mentioned in the said certificate, and the following who did not appear, viz. John Southouse, Edward Edgeworthe, John Breertonne, John Farmerie, John Holden, Nicholas Morice, William Malyme, John Watsonne and John Sledde, were pronounced contumacious and excommunicate by Master John Belley, who then prorogued the visitation to 3 p.m. on the same day.

Folio 5.

At 3 o'clock Master John Belley in the presence of the aforesaid registrars, took his seat as judge and admonished the dean and chapter then present before him, that they should canonically correct and reform Henry Horner, one of the vicars choral, detected of holding wrong opinions on the received religion (detectum de eo quod non bene sentit de religione recepta) and with asserting that it was no derogation from the honour of God to invoke the Blessed Virgin and offer prayers to her, and that they should certify the same to the bishop or his chancellor before 22 September next. He admonished them also that before the same date they should correct and reform such of the prebendaries as were bound to preach in the cathedral church and failed to do so. Further, that they should correct Christopher Digles, master of the grammar-school, detected by Master John Robinsonne, canon residentiary, of negligence in teaching, before the 22 September, to which day Master John Belley prorogued the visitation, [folio 5d.] and admonished all concerned to attend.

¹ He was clerk of the fabric in 1583 (see folio 15).

On 20 June, 1580, at Horncastle, Master John Watson, prebendary of Langford manor appeared in person before Master John Belley, and craved absolution from the excommunication pronounced against him, which was granted on his making oath to obey the mandates of the church.

Notification to Thomas bishop of Lincoln by William Wickham the dean, and the chapter, that whereas at the visitation held on 16 June Christopher Digles, master of the grammar-school, and Thomas Butler, master of the choristers' music-school, had been detected of grave negligence in instructing their scholars, and Henry Horner, vicar-choral, of the other offences mentioned above, they had taken steps for their correction and reformation according to the vicar-general's directions. Sealed in their chapter-house 21 Nov., 1580.

On Thursday, 22 Sept., 1580, in the chapter-house at Lincoln before Master John Belley, LL.D., vicar-general, [folio 6] in the presence of Thomas Tailior and Francis Bullingham, writers of the acts and registrars, preconization was made of Thomas Todd, prebendary of Leicester, who appeared by Master Thomas Randes his proctor, when George Hudlestone, provost of the vicars choral, made complaint that the said Thomas Todd withheld the salary of the vicars choral, viz. 'stall wagies and ministracions,' and the judge decreed that he should appear before the dean and chapter on Saturday week or sooner to show cause why he should not be punished for such non-payment of their salaries. Master John Belley then dissolved the visitation.

Commission of John Belley, LL.D., vicar-general and principal official of Thomas bishop of Lincoln, to John Chippingdale, LL.D., directing him to proceed by law against those who had violated the sequestration laid upon the following benefices for non-payment of the triennial procurations to the bishop. [Folio 16d.] Dated 29 April, 1583.

27 May, in the chapter-house. Edward Edgeworth, William Stocker, John Holdon, and Edmund Culpeper, failing to appear after due citation, were pronounced by John Belley, LL.D., vicar-general, to be contumacious and excommunicate.

Folio 17.

17 June. The aforesaid Edmund Culpeper appeared before Master John Belley, I.L.D., vicar-general, at Bedford, in the presence of me Thomas Tailour, public notary, writer of the acts and registrar, and craved absolution, professing himself ready to obey the mandates of the church, and Master John absolved him.

1 July, in the chapter-house. Before Master John Barefote, S.T.P., canon residentiary, sitting as judge, in the presence of me Thomas Tailour, public notary, writer of the acts and registrar, there appeared Henry Christofer, public notary, and exhibited the bishop's commission, which John Barefote received, and in virtue thereof prorogued the visitation to Monday, 15 July, and admonished all who appeared on 27 May last then to appear in the chapter-house between the hours of 9 and 10 a.m.

1 July. The above-mentioned commission of the bishop.
Folio 17d.

On Monday, 15 July, in the chapter-house at Lincoln, before Master John Robinsonne, S.T.P., canon residentiary, sitting as judge, in the presence of me Thomas Tailior, public notary, writer of the acts and registrar, there appeared Henry Christofer, public notary, and exhibited the bishop's commission, which having been read by Thomas Tailior, was received by Master John Robinsonne, who in virtue thereof prorogued the visitation [folio 18] to Monday, 16 Sept., and admonished all concerned to appear in the chapter-house on that day between 9 and 10 a.m.

12 July. The above-mentioned commission.
Folio 18d.

Commission of Thomas bishop of Lincoln. appointing, during his good pleasure only, John Belley, LL.D., to be his vicar-general in spirituals and principal official. and giving him jurisdiction throughout the diocese of Lincoln in all ecclesiastical matters, to enquire into offences and punish offenders by the censures of the church, etc., to approve last wills and testaments, to grant administration of the goods of intestates, etc., etc. ; and moreover to visit the chapter of the cathedral church, and the city of Lincoln, and all other places and churches, and the clergy and people of the said diocese, [folio 19] so far as the said places are not exempt from the bishop's jurisdiction, with the same powers as were possessed by the vicars-general and principal officials of the bishop's predecessors, and with the power of appointing deputies, surrogates and substitutes. Dated at Lincoln, 27 May, 1583, 25 Elizabeth, and in the 13th year of the bishop's consecration.

A royal writ, dated at Westminster, 31 May, 25 Elizabeth, having been addressed to the bishop of Lincoln, [folio 19d.] reciting that Simon Osney before the queen's justices at Westminster, had recovered against John Sudlowe, clerk, of Fiskerton, co. Lincoln, a debt of 5l. 10s. 0d., and 1l. 6s. 8d. for damages, and that Sudlowe had failed to pay the money, and that the sheriff of Lincoln had returned that he could not obtain the money because Sudlowe had no lay fee, goods or chattels in his bailiwick, and commanding the bishop to recover the said money out of his ecclesiastical benefice, the bishop, in pursuance of the writ, sequestered the profits of the rectory of Fiskerton, and directed Everard Walles, public messenger, [folio 20] to receive and pay over all such fruits until the debt and other reasonable expenses should be satisfied. Dated 10 July, 1583, 25 Elizabeth.

Certificate of Thomas bishop of Lincoln to the queen's justices at Westminster, certifying that he had sequestered the fruits of the rectory of Fiskerton, but had been unable to levy anything from them because John Sudlowe, the rector, a long time before, for a sum of money paid down. had leased all such fruits to John Mounson, esq., and others for a term of years not yet expired. [Folio 20d.] Dated [day and month blank] 1583, 25 Eliz.

On 4 Sept., 1583, in the chapter-house of the cathedral church, Thomas bishop of Lincoln took his seat as judge in the presence of me Thomas Tailior, public notary, writer of the acts and registrar, and dissolved his ordinary visitation.

¹ He was instituted to Leadenham rectory, 22 March, 1558-9, being described as a priest (presbiter) (A.B., 1547-70, folio 150). He was a mathematician and astrologer. At Dudley's command he wrote an astrological calculation respecting the choice of a fit day for Elizabeth's coronation. He did much valuable work, but later devoted all his attention to alchemical experiments, and to a pretended intercourse with angels or evil spirits. His evil reputation as a sorcerer caused him to be shunned by all classes of society. The queen, however, held him in high esteem (see Dictionary of National Biography, where a long account of his life is given). In 1580 Dee was still in trouble with the ecclesiastical authorities. Unfortunately, however, the Liber Cleri of that year is so badly injured that only a word or two of the entry relating to him remains (folio 3). He was cited to the court of the official of Lincoln during the vacancy of the see, and failing to appear, was declared contumacious, and deprived 15 June, 1584 (Register, 1580-1618, folios 24 ff.).

² A mistake for 'Gamon' as is shewn by P.D., 1571, no. 17; L.C., 1580, folio 8; L.C., 1585, folio 7.

Abstract of the Will of John Horne.

In the Name of God, Amen. 10 Dec., 1570. I, John Horne of Kenseworthe, co. Hertford, husbandman, sick in body, etc. My body to be buried in the churchyard of Kenseworthe. To the poor of Kennesworthe 12*d*. To Agnes my wife all such lands and leases and implements of household as she brought to me. I will that my mother shall have her annuity of 4*l*. by the year and her finding during her natural life. The rest of all my lands and tenements, goods and chattels I bequeath to Edward Horne, my brother, and Thomas Heath, my brother in law, to make the best of it for 14 years, towards the payment of my debts, redeeming of my lands, and bringing up of my children. I give the same Edward and Thomas full power to sell any part of the said lands and tenements and the woods and underwoods of the same, and the goods and chattels aforesaid, to any person at their own will, and the said bargain shall be good against my heirs and executors. I constitute Reynold Horne, my son, executor, and he to have for his pains-taking 20*s*. I appoint my brother Richard Horne and Thomas Horne supervisors of this my last will, and they to have for their pains 6*s*. 8*d*. apiece. Witnesses: Richarde Ames, William Fermour, and Thomas Horne, Richard Horne, Roger Dason, and others. (folio 205).

Commission to Edward Horne, brother of John Horne, deceased, to administer the goods of the said deceased, according to the tenor of the will during the minority of Reginald Horne, the executor. 8 Feb., 1570-1. (folio 205*d*.).

In the house of Master Thomas Yale, LL.D., etc., and before him, in presence of me Thomas Blackemore, public notary, appeared in person Edward Horne, the administrator, etc., and exhibited the account of his administration, and he, having sworn to the truth of the same, the archbishop decreed letters of acquittal, etc. 27 Oct., 1572. (folio 214*d*.).

Licence for the marriage of a clerk.

Matthew archbishop of Canterbury, to whom all jurisdiction in the diocese of Lincoln belongs, the episcopal see there being vacant, etc., to all, etc.—

We inform you all that whereas William Yomans, clerk, rector of the parish church of Stoke Goldington, co. Buckingham, in the diocese of Lincoln, and Joan Piggot of Braynford in the diocese of London, have lawfully, as it is said, contracted to marry, which marriage, the consent and assent of the ordinary of the place and of others required in that behalf being had, they intend to solemnize in the face of the church with all convenient speed, We, being by faithful witnesses informed of the laudable conversation, morals, honesty and uprightness of the said Joan Piggott, have given our consent and assent that the said William and Joan may solemnize such matrimony as is aforesaid contracted between them, etc. In witness, etc. Given in our manor of Lambeth, 22 Feb., 1570-1, and in the 12th year of our consecration.

¹ These admissions, which are not recorded in Cooper's Act Book, have been collected from the several sources specified in the reference at the end of each entry. The words 'admitted,' 'instituted' and 'expedited' are synonymous, and indicate that the clerk obtained possession of the benefice. Some of the entries only record that the clerk was presented to the benefice, or paid the firstfruits of it, and in these cases the evidence for and against his admission is given in the footnotes. The number of cases in which the clerk was presented and not admitted is noticeable.

(Comp.).

[A.D. 1574-5.]

Nicholas Croumpe,³ cl., presented 18 March, 1574-5, to the rectory of Thedilthorpe Helen's. P.—the queen by free gift. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 226d.).

A.D. 1575.

Owen Jones,⁴ cl., presented 25 March, 1575, 17 Eliz., to the rectory of Adilthorpe. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Doddes. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 226d.). He compounded for the firstfruits 10 June, 1575. (Comp.).

Martin Crosfeild,⁵ cl., compounded 5 May, 1575, for the south part of the rectory of Claypole. P.—Robert Markham and Mary his wife. (Comp.).

William Crowder,⁶ cl., compounded 28 Oct., 1575, for the firstfruits of the rectory of Thorneton. P.—William Askew, esq. (Comp.).

[A.D. 1575-6.]

Richard Turnebull,⁷ cl., presented 2 Jan., 1575-6, 18 Eliz., to the rectory of Wadingworthe. P.—the queen by lapse, on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Humfrey. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 233d.).

A.D. 1576.

Thomas Cross,⁸ M.A., presented 20 April, 1576, 18 Eliz., to the vic. of Sutherton. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 50).

Thomas Humbleton,⁹ cl., presented 14 June, 1576, 18 Eliz., to the rectory of Alington, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of lord Clinton. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 237d.).

Nicholas Bond,¹⁰ M.A., presented 10 July, 1576, 18 Eliz., to the rectory of Fulbeck. P.—the queen by lapse. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 51).

² I.e. Beelsby, as is shewn by the amount of the firstfruits.

³ He does not appear in Comp. Edward Dawes was admitted 4 Jan., 1575-6, on the resig. of Edmund Warter (see page 15), who compounded 8 Aug., 1542. Croumpe probably failed to secure admission.

⁴ He was not rector in 1576 (see page 190).

⁵ He was rector in 1576 (see page 159), and in 1580 (see page 216).

⁶ He was rector of Thornton-le-Moor in 1576 (see page 173).

⁷ In August, 1576, the benefice was returned as 'vacant, as it is said' (see page 197). John Smyth compounded, 1 Feb., 1563-4, and John Spencer was admitted on Smyth's death, 23 June, 1578 (see page 21).

⁸ Joshua Floure compounded 12 May, 1576. Cross does not appear in Comp., and it is very doubtful whether he was admitted.

¹⁰ He does not appear in Comp., and John Robinson was rector in the following month (see page 158). In view of the fact that Robinson was instituted 29 April, 1560 (A.B., 1547-70, folio 94d.), it is probable that Bond never became rector.

[A.D. 1576-7.]

Raphael Throgmerton,¹ cl., presented 21 Jan., 1576-7, to the rectory of Bolingbroke, vac. by death. P.—Nicholas Ogle, esq., by reason of a grant of next advowson (see page 245). (P.D., 1577, no. 5).

William Balderstone, B.A., presented 12 Feb., 1576-7, 19 Eliz., to the vic. of Swyneshead, vac. by death. P.—John Whitgift, S.T.D., master of Trinity College, Cambridge, and the fellows of the same, p.j. Admitted 11 March. (P.D., 1577, no. 11).

[A.D. 1577-8.]

Thomas Heringe,² cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Burgh in the Marsh, 10 Feb., 1577-8. (Comp.).

A.D. 1578.

Thomas Humbleton, cl., presented 15 March, 1577-8, to the ch. of Skegnes, vac. by death. P.—Adam Darnell of Thornholme, co. Lincoln, esq. Admitted 21 April.* (P.D., 1578, no. 16).

Christopher Baildon,³ cl., presented 26 April, 1578, 20 Eliz., to the vic. of Baston. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Coope[r]. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 256).

James Assheton,⁴ cl., presented 16 June, 1578, 20 Eliz., to the rectory of Thoreswaye, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Scudamore. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 257d.).

[A.D. 1578-9.]

William Lane,⁵ preacher of the Word, presented 20 March, 1578-9, 21 Eliz., to the rectory of Westerkeale. P.—the queen by lapse. (Lansdowne MS. no. 443, folio 59d.).

A.D. 1579.

Walter Brickells,⁶ cl., presented 8 Sept., 1579, 21 Eliz., to the vic. of Swynderbye. P.—the queen by lapse. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 269d.).

[A.D. 1579-80.]

Edmund Spynckes,⁷ cl., presented 18 Feb., 1579-80, 22 Eliz., to the rectory of Little Paunton. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 279).

A.D. 1580.

Richard Lane, cl., presented 10 April, 22 Eliz. [A.D. 1580], to the rectory of Ingolesby, vac. by the depriv. of John Thorneffe. P.—Richard More of Grantham, co. Lincoln, esq., p.j. Admitted 21 May. (P.D., 1580, no. 26).

* Mandate to A. Linc.

² It is unlikely that he was admitted (see pages 8 and 23).

³ It is difficult to see how he can have been admitted; for Hugh Standishe was instituted 9 June, 1578, on the depriv. of Robert Jackson (see page 21), and was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., folio 6d.). Jackson was instituted 27 Nov., 1560 (A.B., 1547-70, folio 111d.).

⁴ He does not appear in Comp. Cp. page 23.

⁵ Cp. pages 192, 230 and 230n.

⁶ No evidence of his admission is forthcoming. The benefice was vacant in 1576 (see page 162). Cp. page 28.

⁷ No evidence of his admission has been found. He was not rector in 1585. (L.C., 1585, folio 5).

Master William Wickham, S.T.P., presented 11 July, 1580, to the rectory of Witheren, vac. by the death of Robert Sarrat. P.—Herbert Pelham, esq. Admitted 19 July. (P.D., 1580, no. 14).

William Wetherley,¹ cl., presented 10 Aug., 1580, 22 Eliz., to the rectory of North Stoke. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 287*d.*).

James Nayler,² cl., presented 23 Dec., 1580, 23 Eliz., to the rectory of Gunby (9*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*). P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 297*d.*).

[A.D. 1580-1.]

William Southe, cl., presented 8 Jan., 23 Eliz., 1580-1, to the rectory of Sotbye, vac. by death. P.—William Yates, citizen and tanner of the city of Lincoln, by reason of an assignment of a grant of next presentation (see pages 242*f.*).³ Admitted 10 Jan. (P.D., 1581, no. 13).

Sir Martin Hill, cl., presented 14 Jan., 23 Eliz. [A.D. 1580-1], to the ch. of Asfordy (or Asserby), vac. by the death of Christopher Bersay. P.—Nicholas Beamounte. Admitted 16 Jan., 23 Eliz. (P.D., 1581, no. 3).

A.D. 1581.

John Wrichte,² M.A., presented 11 May, 1581, 23 Eliz., to the rectory of Gunbye (9*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*), vac. by resig. P.—the queen p.j. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 301*d.*).

John Downes,³ M.A., presented 1 July, 1581, 23 Eliz., to the rectory of Howton-in-Beckering. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 303*d.*).

Thomas Bracebridge, cl., presented⁴ at Westminster, 7 June, 23 Eliz. [A.D. 1581], to the vic. of Banburye, co. Oxford. P.—the queen. Expedited 10 Aug. Mandate to D. and C. (P.D., 1581, no. 36).

A.D. 1582.

William Ayscoughe,⁵ cl., presented 18 May, 1582, 24 Eliz., to the rectory of Croxbye, vac. by resig. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 314*d.*).

[A.D. 1582-3.]

George Cockborne,⁶ cl., presented 29 Jan., 1582-3, 25 Eliz., to the rectory of Welton in the deanery of Lowtheske and Ludburghe, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 444, folio 49).

¹ He compounded 22 Nov., 1581, and was rector in 1585 (L.C. 1585, folio 5*d.*).

² It is difficult to account for this presentation and the one to Gunby below. The value given in the text is not that either of Gunby in the deanery of Beltisloe, or of Gunby in the deanery of Candleshoe. Moreover John Richardson was admitted to Gunby in Beltisloe, 7 Sept., 1576 (see page 16), and held it in 1585 (L.C. 1585, folio 5*d.*), while John Burley was instituted to Gunby in Candleshoe 5 Jan., 1574-5 (see page 13), and was still incumbent in 1585 (L.C. 1585, folio 12).

³ The evidence is against his having been admitted. He does not appear in Comp. Moreover, Gregory Garth was admitted 24 Oct., 1571 (see page 5), and still held the benefice in 1585 (L.C. 1585, folio 19), and read the articles in the church there, 30 Feb., 1576-7 (ibid.).

⁵ It is unlikely that he was admitted, for William Brikhyll was presented by the queen 16 Feb., 1561-2 (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 115*d.*), and Francis Kettelwell was admitted, 12 Oct., 1582, on the resignation of William Bruckell (see page 30).

⁶ The evidence is against his having been admitted. He did not compound; and Edward Webster was rector in 1576 (see page 185), and in 1585 (L.C. 1585, folio 15*d.*).

A.D. 1583.

John Kensey, cl.,¹ presented 2 Aug., 1583, 25 Eliz., to the vic. of South-elkington, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 444, folio 57).

[A.D. 1583-4.]

Edmund Hounde,² cl., S.T.P., presented 9 Jan., 1583-4, 26 Eliz., to the rectory of Birton (value—17*l.* 12*s.* 2*d.*), vac. by death. P.—the queen p.j. (Lansdowne MS. 444, folio 67*d.*).

Martin Holden, cl., presented at Westminster, 24 Dec., 26 Eliz. [A.D. 1583], to the rectory of Sutterbie, vac. by death. P.—the queen. Admitted at Lamhithe, 16 March.* (P.D., 1583, no. 22).

Robert Deanes,³ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Candlesbie, 16 June, 1584. (Comp.).

ARCHDEACONRY OF LEICESTER.

[A.D. 1570-1.]

Geoffrey Jonson,⁴ cl., presented 23 Feb., 1570-1, to the vic. of St. Martin's in Leicester, vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of the earl of Huntingten. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 192).

A.D. 1571.

Thomas Martyn, cl., presented at Westminster, 5 April, 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the vic. of Buckmynster, vac. by death. P.—the queen *p.j.*⁵ Admitted and inducted by the bishop, 5 April, 1571. (P.D., 1571, no. 14).

Edward Cradock,⁶ S.T.P., presented 16 May, 1571, to the rectory of Lutterworthe, vac. by resig. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 37*d.*).

Anthony Anderson,⁷ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Medburne, 22 May. (Comp.).

Robert Sutton, M.A., presented at Westminster 11 June, 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the ch. of Lutterworthe, vac. by the resig. of John Walshull, cl., p.j. P.—the queen. Admitted and inducted by the bishop, 17 June. (P.D., 1571, no. 40).

Hugh Blythe,⁸ M.A., presented 2 July, 1571, to the rectory of Medburne. P.—the queen by lapse. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 38*d.*).

* Mandate to A. Linc.

¹ He was probably never admitted. Richard Pelsonne was instituted 20 Nov., 1583 (see page 33), on the death of Henry Noddell, who was admitted 21 July, 1580 (see page 26).

² He did not compound. William Pollarde was presented to this benefice 27 Feb., 1583-4 (Lansdowne MS. 444, folio 69), and was admitted 30 April, 1584 (L.C., 1585, folio 5*d.*).

³ Robert Devins subscribed and was instituted 9 March, 1583-4, 26 Elizabeth (L.C., 1585, folio 12).

⁴ No proof of his admission has been found.

⁵ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 193, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Whytegytte.'

⁶ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

⁷ He vacated the benefice in 1582, and was re-admitted (see page 44). The admission in the text may possibly have taken place before the time of Cooper's episcopate.

⁸ Compare the penultimate entry. Blythe did not compound, and if he obtained admission at all, it was probably to enable Anthony Anderson to secure the benefice for himself.

Richard Fox, presented 13 June, 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the ch. of Ipstock alias Ibstock. P.—Edmund Brownehyle of the city of Coventry, draper, and John Saunders of the same city, 'graysyer,' in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, by virtue of a grant of the next advowson and an assignment thereof to the presents annexed (see page 249). Endorsed: Instituted¹ in the bishop's dwelling-house at Lamehith, 6 Nov.* (P.D., 1571, no. 33).

[A.D. 1571-2.]

George Hordren, cl., presented at Westminster, 27 Dec., 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the vic. of Overton-under-Ardern. P.—the queen² p.j. Admitted at Bugden, 7 Jan.* (P.D., 1571, no. 54).

William Danzey, cl., presented 11 Nov., 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the vic. of Sproxtan, vac. by the death of John Warren. P.—Edward earl of Rutland. Admitted by the bishop at Lincoln, 31 Jan.* (P.D., 1571, no. 60).

A.D. 1572.

Richard Coates, presented at Westminster, 3 Dec., 15 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], to the rectory of Sharnford. P.—the queen.³ Admitted, 30 Dec.* (P.D., 1572, no. 55).

A.D. 1573.

Thomas Boilson, cl., presented at Westminster, 20 Feb., 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1571-2], to the rectory of Longe Whatton, vac. by death. P.—the queen *p.j.⁴ Admitted 18 April. (P.D., 1573, no. 47).

William Fenton,⁵ cl., presented 31 Oct., 1573, to the rectory of Alaxton, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Walker. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 211d.).

A.D. 1574.

Roger Skynner, cl., presented 8 Nov., 1573, to the vic. of Thorpe Arnold, vac. by the resig. of Thomas Cowper. P.—John Hawford, gent., p.j. Admitted, 19 June. (P.D., 1573, no. 28).

John Syddall, cl., presented at Westminster, 25 May, 16 Eliz. [A.D. 1574], to the rectory of Peatling Parva, vac. by resig. P.—the queen *p.j.*⁶ Admitted 19 June. (P.D., 1574, no. 48).

A.D. 1575.

John Andro,⁷ cl., presented 1 April, 1575, to the vic. of Wiggeston. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Francis Cave. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 226d.).

* Mandate to A. Leic.

¹ Cp. page 35, which refers to another and later institution of the same clerk, unless the date is wrong either in A.B. or in the P.D.

² Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 200, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Ellys,' and 'vac. by depriv.' The same authority gives 2 Dec. for the date of presentation. See page 35 for another institution of the same clerk to the same benefice.

³ Lansdowne MS., folio 206d., adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Sampson.'

⁴ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 201d., adds 'on the petition and recommendation of viscount Hereford.' Boilson compounded 21 Feb., 1572-3.

⁵ He does not seem to have been admitted, for Ralph Bradley compounded in 1570, and resigned in 1578 (see page 41).

⁶ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 218, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Lane.'

⁷ No proof of his admission has been found.

1575-9. ARCHDEACONRY OF LEICESTER. 319

John Baxter,¹ cl., presented 15 April, 1575, to the vic. of Thirnbye, vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Francis Hasteinges. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 226*d.*).

[A.D. 1575-6.]

Thomas Butler,² cl., presented 9 Feb., 1575-6, to the vic. of Overton-under-Arderne, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Kennall. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 234*d.*).

A.D. 1576.

James Sayer,¹ cl., presented 7 July, 1576, to the rectory of Saxbye. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Cole. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 238).

John Symonde,³ cl., presented 20 July, 1576, to the vic. of Overton-under-Arderne, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Wattes. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 238*d.*).

Julius Watson,⁴ cl., presented 25 July, 1576, to the vic. of Abkettillbye, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Francis Cave, esq. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 238*d.*).

Robert Humpston,⁵ cl., presented 9 Nov., 1576, to the vic. of Ratcliffe, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Stokes. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 240*d.*).

[A.D. 1576-7.]

John Costerdine,⁶ M.A., presented at Westminster, 20 Feb., 19 Eliz. [A.D. 1576-7], to the rectory of Litterworthe, vac. by resig. P.—the queen p.j. Admitted . . . March, 1576-7. (P.D., 1577, no. 8).

Christopher Holmes, cl., presented at Westminster, 27 Feb., 19 Eliz. [A.D. 1576-7], to the vic. of Ab-Kettleby, vac. by death. P.—the queen.⁷ Admitted 8 March. (P.D., 1577, no. 1).

A.D. 1578.

John Hicklinge,¹ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Abkettillby, 18 Aug., 1578. (Comp.).

[A.D. 1578-9.]

Thomas Bickley,² S.T.P., presented 20 March, 1578-9, to the rectory of Saddington. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 60).

Robert Humpston,¹ cl., presented 20 March, 1578-9, to the rectory of Hyngham on the Hill, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 60).

² He does not appear to have been admitted, for the benefice was held by another clerk at this date (see pages 35 and 39).

³ He does not appear to have been admitted, for the benefice was held by George Hordren from Aug., 1572, until the admission in April, 1577, of Roger Spenser (see pages 35 and 39), who was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 33*d.*).

⁴ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

⁵ No proof of his admission has been found. Cp. page 42, where probably the same person is called 'Humperston.' See also page 320.

⁶ He was rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 26*d.*).

⁷ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 246, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of the earl of Kent.'

⁸ The benefice was vacant 21 July, 1579, by his resignation (see page 42).

John Poole,¹ cl., presented 20 March, 1578-9, to the rectory of Wymondham, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 60).

A.D. 1579.

Thomas Heathe,² cl., presented 2 May, 1579, to the rectory of Thurstaston, vac. by lapse or otherwise. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 61*d.*).

Richard Clarke, cl., presented at Westminster, 14 Feb., 18 Eliz. [A.D. 1575-6], to the rectory of Kyrkby Malarye. P.—the queen⁵ by lapse, p.j. Admitted 19 June. (P.D., 1579, no. 85).

Anthony Carrington, cl., presented at Westminster, 6 July, 21 Eliz. [A.D. 1579], to the rectory of Willoughby Waterles. P.—the queen p.j. Admitted 14 July. (P.D., 1579, no. 40).

Richard Tynne,⁶ cl., presented 6 Aug., 1579, to the rectory of Willoughby Waterles, vac. by resig. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 269).

John Cooke, S.T.B., presented 11 Nov., 1579, to the rectory of Onlippe, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 271*d.*).

[A.D. 1579-80.]

Thomas Neale,⁸ cl., presented 10 March, 1579-80, to the vic. of Abkettelbye. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 279*d.*).

A.D. 1580.

Richard Tellowe,⁷ cl., presented 9 May, 1580, to the rectory of Onlypp. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 281*d.*).

Hugh Osborne, cl., presented 20 June, 22 Eliz. [A.D. 1580], to the rectory of South Croxton, vac. by the resig. of Edmund Willock. P.—Edward earl of Rutland, lord Roos of Hamleck, Trusbuz and Belvoir. Admitted 12 July. (P.D., 1580, no. 44).

Thomas Wagstaffe,⁹ M.A., presented 18 July, 1580, to the rectory of Glenfeilde. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS., folio 286*d.*).

¹ William Gulson was admitted 21 May, 1578 (see page 40), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 33).

² He did not compound. Thomas Willet compounded in 1559-60, and was succeeded by Brutus Babington in 1583 (see page 44).

³ No evidence of his admission has been found.

⁴ He does not seem to have been admitted, for William Thorpe compounded in 1540-1, and the benefice was vacant by his resignation in 1582 (see page 44).

⁵ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 235, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Hincke.'

⁶ He does not seem to have been admitted for John Debancke compounded in 1559, and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 27).

⁷ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

⁸ He compounded 8 April, 1580, and was vicar in 1585. (L.C., 1585, folio 32).

⁹ He does not seem to have been admitted, for William Hareware compounded in 1559, and the benefice was vacant by his death in 1581-2 (see page 43). He was succeeded by Simon Cox, who was rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 26).

1571-2. ARCHDEACONRY OF BUCKINGHAM. 321

John Bissop,¹ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Howbie, 1 Aug., 1580. (Comp.).

* Mandate to A. Buck.

¹ No evidence of his admission has been found. Another clerk was admitted in 1581 (see page 43).

² He does not seem to have been admitted, for Robert Kirkland was instituted in 1575 (see page 37), and was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 26*d.*).

³ No evidence of his institution has been found. He did not compound. Cp. the institutions to this benefice, pages 37 and 45 (bis).

⁴ He was rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 28).

⁵ The evidence is against his having been instituted, for Thomas Carter was admitted in 1575 (see page 37), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 27).

⁶ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 193*d.*, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Bullingham.

⁷ The benefice was vacant by his resignation in 1576 (see page 50).

⁸ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 200*d.*, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Weste.'

A.D. 1572.

William Watson, cl., presented 15 March, 1571-2, to the ch. of Bow-Birkhill, vac. by death. P.—Kenelm Watson, esq., p.j. Admitted 25 March. (P.D., 1572, no. 5).

William Chalener,¹ cl., presented 15 April, 1572, to the rectory of SS. Mary and Nicholas in Saunderton, vac. by the death of William Grene, cl. P.—Ralph Lee of Saunderton, esq. (P.D., 1572, no. 51).

John Prestman, cl., presented 28 April, 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], to the rectory of Harsham alias Haversham, vac. by the death of John Rawlynson. P.—Thomas Lucy of Harsham alias Haversham, knt. Admitted by the bishop, at Lamhith, 10 May. (P.D., 1572, no. 28).

Laurence Thorley, cl., presented at Draiton, 18 June, 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], to the rectory of Woughton de le Greene, vac. by the death of John Rawlinsone. P.—Lodovic lord Mordaunt. Admitted at Lamhith, 23 June. (P.D., 1572, no. 79).

[A.D. 1572-3.]

John Barker, B.A., presented at Westminster, 19 Dec., 15 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], to the rectory of Ludgarsale, vac. by lapse and by the negligence of both patron and ordinary. P.—the queen. Admitted at Bugden, 2 Jan. (P.D., 1572, no. 4).

John Jones,² cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Walton, 10 March, 1572-3. (Comp.).

A.D. 1573.

Richard Worsley, cl., presented 26 May, 15 Eliz. [A.D. 1573], to the rectory of Foscot alias Foxcote, vac. by the acceptance by John More, cl., of a second benefice without a sufficient dispensation. P.—Marmaduke Claver, gent., p.j. Admitted at Buckden, 27 May. (P.D., 1573, no. 11).

Thomas Stonynge,³ cl., presented 24 June, 1573, to the vic. of Astewoode, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Bateman. (Lansdowne MS., 443, folio 209*d.*).

A.D. 1574.

John Barker,⁴ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Ludgarsale, 9 June, 1574. (Comp.).

Thomas Wightman, LL.B., presented at Fauley, 28 March, 16 Eliz. [A.D. 1574], to the ch. of Fawley, vac. by the death of Philip Paule. P.—Robert Rookes of Fawley, esq., p.j. Admitted at Ailesburie, 12 June.⁵ Seal of arms [indecipherable]. (P.D., 1574, no. 25).

Walter Roche,³ cl., presented 27 July, 1574, to the vic. of Whitchurche, vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Langeforde. (Lansdowne MS., 443, folio 219*d.*).

¹ He does not seem to have been admitted, for Ralph Lee presented again 20 Sept., 1572, on the death of William Grene (see page 46).

² He was vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 40).

³ There is no evidence of his having been admitted.

⁴ The rectory was vacant by his deprivation in 1576 (see page 50).

⁵ Wightman was instituted again, 14 July, 1580 (see page 52).

1575-9. ARCHDEACONRY OF BUCKINGHAM. 323

[A.D. 1574-5.]

John White,¹ cl., presented 14 March, 1574-5, to the vic. of Steplecleydton. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Wattes. (Lansdowne MS., 443, folio 226).

John Kynge,² cl., presented 18 March, 1574-5, to the vic. of Ravensden. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Spencer. (Lansdowne MS., 443, folio 226).

A.D. 1575.

Walter Lougher,³ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Ever, 29 April, 1575. (Comp.).

Francis Fletcher,³ cl., presented 30 May, 1575, to the rectory of Braddenham, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Walter Myldemaye, knt. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 227*d*).

[A.D. 1575-6.]

John Robertes, cl., presented 15 Feb., 18 Eliz., 1575-6, to the rectory of Hugeley, vac. by death. P.—Robert Drury of Hugeley, knt. Admitted 20 Feb. (P.D., 1576, no. 14).

A.D. 1576.

William Meatcalfe,⁴ cl., presented 30 May, 1576, to the rectory of Chetington. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of the dean of St. Paul's, London. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 237).

[A.D. 1576-7.]

William Saunders,⁵ cl., presented 29 Jan., 1576-7, to the vic. of Chessham Leicester. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of the earl of Bedford. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 245*d*).

John Smithe,⁶ cl., presented 12 March, 1576-7, to the vic. of Bledlowe, vac. by resig.⁷ P.—William More, cl. (P.D., 1577, no. 4).

[A.D. 1577-8.]

Robert Blunte, cl., B.A., presented at Westminster, 13 Jan., 20 Eliz. [A.D. 1577-8], to the rectory of Walton, vac. by resig. P.—the queen p.j. Admitted 17 Jan. (P.D., 1578, no. 13).

A.D. 1579.

Robert Cole,⁸ cl., presented 11 April, 1579, to the vic. of Wadden. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 60*d*).

John Rith, cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Risborough,⁹ 21 July, 1579. (Comp.).

¹ There is no evidence of his having been admitted. He did not compound.

² The benefice was vacant by his death, 7 May, 1577 (see page 50).

³ No proof of his admission has been found.

⁴ The evidence is against his having been admitted, for Thomas Clarke compounded 22 June, 1569, and he was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 37*d*).

⁵ He was vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 35).

⁶ He was vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 42).

⁷ See page 295.

⁸ He was probably not admitted, for William Jones, who was instituted in 1572, was succeeded, 6 Jan., 1579-80, by John Seddon, who held the vicarage in 1585 (see pages 46 and 52, and L.C., 1585, folio 38).

⁹ Monks' Risborough was a peculiar belonging to the archbishop of Canterbury.

Nicholas Clerke,¹ cl., presented 14 Aug., 1579, to the rectory of Bradtenham, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 269).

[A.D. 1579-80].

John More,² cl., presented 4 Feb., 1579-80, to the rectory of Foscot, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 277*d.*).

A.D. 1580.

James Stevenes,³ cl., presented 2 June, 1580, to the vic. of Haddenham. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 283).

Edward Baker,⁴ M.A., presented 22 June, 1580, to the rectory of Woolston Parva. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 285).

A.D. 1581.

Ralph Smythe,⁵ cl., S.T.B., presented 22 July, 1581, to the rectory of Haversham, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 304).

Thomas Gardenar,⁶ cl., presented 13 Oct., 1581, 23 Eliz., to the vic. of Chicelie, vac. by the resignation of Walter Thomas. P.—William Chester, esq. Admitted 2 Nov. (P.D., 1581, no. 31).

A.D. 1582.

George Clarke, cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Risborough,⁷ 5 July, 1582. (Comp.).

Robert Newton,⁸ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Stowe, 6 Aug., 1582. (Comp.).

ARCHDEACONRY OF BEDFORD.

A.D. 1571.

John Yonge, cl., to the rectory of Holcote. P.—the archbishop of Canterbury by lapse. Admitted by the archbishop, 1 May. Mandate to all and singular rectors, etc. (Archbishop Parker's Register, folio 404).

Christopher Goodman,⁹ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Odell, 10 May, 1571. (Comp.).

² The evidence is against his having been admitted, for David Powell was instituted in 1574 (see page 48), and was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 36).

³ See page 54. No proof of his admission has been found. The evidence is against his having been instituted for he did not compound, and moreover Richard Spencer was instituted 7 Nov., 1560 (A.B., 1547-70, folio 111), and the benefice was vacant by his death in Dec., 1582 (P.D., 1582, no. 30). A.B., page 54 (bis), is in error in stating that the benefice was vacated by Edward Spencer. Spencer's name in A.B. has apparently been inserted by the original scribe in a blank left when the body of the entry was written.

⁴ Henry Wilcocks was instituted in 1575 (see page 49), and was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 40).

⁵ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound, and he was not rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 39).

⁶ He was presented again 16 Dec., 1581 (P.D., 1581, no. 20), and admitted 15 March, 1581-2 (see page 53).

⁷ See page 323, n. 9.

⁸ He was vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 36).

⁹ The rectory was vacant by his resignation, 25 Feb., 1571-2 (see page 56).

Charles Shay,¹ cl., presented 26 June, 1571, to the vic. of Harlington, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Edmund Asshefylde, knt. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 195*d.*).

John Johnson, cl., presented at Tyingham, 29 July, 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], to the ch. of Farnedyshe, vac. by the death of William Lordisman. P.—Anthony Tyingham, gent., by reason of an assignment of the next presentation by William Vaus, knt., lord Harrowdone, p.j. Endorsed: 'My neighbours names—John Stanton, John Baaly, Henry Smith, Will'm Hadland, Nicholas Wright, Robert Littlepage, Thomas Younge, Will'm Long, Will'm Robinson.' Admitted 30 July.* (P.D., 1571, no. 21).

John Wickham,² cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Eversholt, 13 Oct., 1571. (Comp.).

Anthony Sclater,³ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Leighton, 9 Nov., 1571. (Comp.).

A.D. 1572.

Robert Griffin, cl., presented at Stretley, 26 March, 1572, to the vic. of Stretley, vac. by the resig. of Henry Wattes.⁴ P.—Thomas Norton of Stretley, esq., p.j. Admitted by the bishop, at Buckden, 7 April, 1572.* (P.D., 1572, no. 65).

Gilbert Courtman, cl., vicar of Southoe, presented 20 April, 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1572], to the ch. of Pertonhall, vac. by the depriv. of Thomas Lassell, cl., by virtue of a certain act passed by authority of parliament 13 Eliz. P.—James Dyer, knt., chief justice of the bench. Admitted by the bishop at Lamhith, 10 May, 1572. (P.D., 1572, no. 44).

Thomas Castell,⁵ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Clifton, 25 Aug., 1572. (Comp.).

Robert Peveryll,⁶ cl., presented 8 Sept., 1572, to the vic. of Dunton. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of the archdeacon of Middlesex. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 203*d.*).

[A.D. 1572-3.]

Thomas Page,⁷ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Eton, 28 Jan., 1572-3. (Comp.).

A.D. 1573.

William Sage,⁸ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Todington, 28 April, 1573. (Comp.).

* Mandate to A. Bedf.

¹ He did not compound, and no evidence of his institution has been found.

² No evidence of his admission has been found.

³ He held the benefice until his death in 1624 (cp. P.D., 1624, no. 36, and Blaydes' Genealogia Bedfordiensis, page 405).

⁵ The benefice was vacant, 16 May, 1575, by his resignation (see page 60).

⁶ He does not seem to have been admitted, because Humphrey Astall was admitted 11 July, 1572, and was vicar until 1580 (see pages 56 and 63).

⁷ The benefice was vac. 22 Oct., 1576, by his resignation (see page 60).

⁸ He appears as rector of the first part of the rectory in L.C., 1585, folio 46*d.*

Richard Smythe,¹ cl., presented 8 May, 1573, to the vic. of Henlowe, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Rotheram. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 209).

A.D. 1575.

Maurice Faukner,² cl., presented 15 July, 1575, 17 Eliz., to the rectory of Eversholte. P.—the queen, by lapse, on the petition and recommendation of the master of St. John's College, Cambridge. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 228*d.*).

A.D. 1576.

Thomas Nicolson,³ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the vic. of Felmersham-cum-Pabenham, 28 Sept., 1576. (Comp.).

A.D. 1578.

Thomas Sparke, S.T.B., presented at Westminster, 30 April, 20 Eliz. [A.D. 1578], to the rectory of St. Cuthbert in the town of Bedford, vac. by death. P.—the queen⁴ p.j. Admitted 26 May. (P.D., 1578, no. 23).

Martin Williams, cl., presented 12 July, 20 Eliz., 1578, to the ch. of Eversall, vac. by the death of Maurice Fawkenor. P.—Charles Morisin, esq., and Dorothy his wife, p.j. Admitted 17 July.* (P.D., 1578, no. 27).

William Tofte, cl., to the vic. of Felmersham-cum-Pabenham. P.—the archbishop of Canterbury by lapse. Admitted at London, 13 Aug. Mandate to all and singular rectors, etc. (Archbishop Grindal's Register at Lambeth, folio 521*d.*).

[A.D. 1578-9.]

Robert Smythe,⁵ cl., presented 19 Jan., 1578-9, 21 Eliz., to the vic. of Dunton, vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Robert Snagge. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 263*d.*).

Richard Harvyne,⁶ cl., presented 16 Feb., 1578-9, 21 Eliz., to the vic. of Salforde, vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Mr. Tompsonne and Mr. Rotherame. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 264).

[A.D. 1579-80.]

John Henley, cl., B.A. of the university of Cambridge, presented 11 March, 1579-80, to the rectory of Holywell. P.—John Iverye of Hollewell, yeoman.⁷ (P.D., 1580, no. 56).

A.D. 1581.

Lawrence Barnewell,⁸ cl., presented 1 Sept., 1581, 23 Eliz., to the vic. of

* Mandate to A. Bedf.

¹ The evidence is against his having been instituted, for another clerk held the benefice at this time (see pages 56 and 58).

² He compounded 6 Nov., 1576 (Comp.). The benefice was vac. 12 July, 1578, by his death (see below).

³ The benefice was vac. 1 Jan., 1579-80, by his depriv. (see page 62).

⁴ Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 256, adds 'on the petition and recommendation of the bishop of Lincoln.

⁵ He was probably not admitted (see page 325, n. 7).

⁶ No evidence of his admission has been found. He was not vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 48*d.*). Cp. page 62 bis.

⁸ He does not seem to have been admitted, for Peter White became vicar in 1576 (see page 60), and was still vicar in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 47).

1571-4. ARCHDEACONRY OF HUNTINGDON. 327

Eaton Sawkyn alias Eaton [blank]. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 69*d.*).

A.D. 1583.

Edward Noke,¹ cl., presented 26 Oct., 1583. 25 Eliz., to the vic. of Langforde, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 59).

ARCHDEACONRY OF HUNTINGDON.

A.D. 1571.

John Bullingham,² cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Brington Bythorn cum Old Weston, 27 March, 1571. (Comp.).

David Aprice,³ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Hinxworth, 28 June, 1571. (Comp.).

William Martendale,⁴ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the ch. of Ripton Regis, 10 Oct., 1571. (Comp.).

Sir John Phillips, cl., to the vic. of Willen, vac. by death. P.—Robert Tailor and Anne his wife, John Harrison and Thomas Smalman, executors of the testament of Margaret Galton, widow. Admitted 31 Dec. Mandate to A. Bedford.⁵ (A.B., folio 98).

[A.D. 1571-2.]

Benjamin Chambers,⁶ cl., presented 10 March, 14 Eliz. [A.D. 1571-2], to the ch. of Radwell, vac. by the depriv. of [blank]. P.—William Skipwithe, esq. (P.D., 1572, no. 45).

[A.D. 1572-3.]

Henry Hamonte,⁷ cl., M.A., presented 14 Feb., 1572-3, to the ch. of Letchworthe, vac. by death. P.—Robert Snagge, esq., p.j. (P.D., 1573, no. 39).

[A.D. 1573-4.]

Thomas Dun,⁸ cl., presented 4 Jan., 1573-4, to the rectory of Barkehamsted, vac. by resig. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of Anthony Cooke, knt. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 215).

John Leessee,⁹ cl., presented 13 Feb., 1573-4, to the rectory of Westmyll. P.—the queen by lapse, on the petition and recommendation of Dr. Pyerse. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 216).

¹ No evidence of his admission has been found. Another clerk was admitted 1 Jan., 1583-4 (see page 64).

² The rectory was vac. 9 Sept., 1581, by his promotion (see page 71).

³ The benefice was vacant by his cession in 1577 (see page 68).

⁴ No evidence of his admission has been found.

⁵ This admission is entered under the archdeaconry of Bedford in A.B. (see page 56), but it relates to Willian, co. Hertford, for Phillips is entered as vicar of Willian in L.C., 1585, folio 51*d.*

⁶ There is no note of institution on this deed. Attached to it is another presentation deed (no. 46) of the same date (see page 273), which is endorsed 'such presentation was expedited 17 March, 1573-4' (see page 67). Chambers probably never obtained institution by virtue of Skipwithe's deed.

⁷ He was rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 53).

⁸ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

⁹ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound. Thomas Chambers was instituted 16 Nov., 1554 (A.B., 1547-70, folio 120*d.*), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 51*d.*).

A.D. 1574.

Henry Inse,⁷ cl., presented 28 Jan., 1579-80, 22 Eliz., to the rectory of Yelling, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 277).

A.D. 1580.

John Dodde,⁸ cl., presented 7 July, 1580, 22 Eliz., to the rectory of Aspiden. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 285*d.*).

² See page 69 for another institution of the same clerk to the same benefice.

³ It is doubtful whether he was admitted, for the benefice was vacant in 1582 by the death of Edmund Hodson (see page 72), who compounded 22 Dec., 1554.

⁴ He does not seem to have been admitted, for William Curlews was instituted 6 Oct., 1560 (A.B., 1547-70, folio 107*d.*), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 51).

⁵ He does not seem to have been admitted, for Thomas Stevens was instituted in 1571-2 (see page 65), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 54).

⁶ Comp. adds 'and Barham.'

⁷ No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

⁸ He does not seem to have been admitted, for Ralph Tomlyn was instituted in 1575 (see page 68), and was still rector in 1585 (L.C., 1585, folio 51).

[A.D. 1580-1.]

Godfrey Goldisburghe,¹ S.T.B., presented 9 Jan., 1580-1, 23 Eliz., to the rectory of Stukley Parva, vac. by death. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 297*d.*).

A.D. 1581.

Thomas Frauncys,² M.A., presented 22 Dec., 1581, 24 Eliz., to the rectory of Morborne, vac. by lapse. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 310*d.*).

[A.D. 1581-2.]

Robert Townesende, cl., to the rectory of Morborne, co. Huntingdon. Admitted [query 9 Feb., 1581-2³] (see page 284).

ARCHDEACONRY OF STOW.

[A.D. 1571-2.]

Brian Fluid,⁴ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Sudbrooke, 26 Feb., 1571-2.

[A.D. 1573-4.]

Thomas Whithaye,⁵ cl., presented 22 Feb., 1573-4, to the rectory of Pikham⁶ (6*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.*), vac. by death. P.—the queen on the petition and recommendation of the dean of York. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 216*d.*).

A.D. 1574.

Boniface Martin,⁷ B.A., presented at Westminster, 2 July, 7 Eliz. [A.D. 1565], to the rectory of Pilham, vac. by the death of Nicholas Stokes. P.—the queen by the lord keeper. Instituted at Buckden, 7 April. (P.D., 1565, no. 22).

[A.D. 1577-8.]

Robert Shawe, cl., presented at the archiepiscopal castle of Cawood, 28 Nov., 1577, to the vic. of Owston, vac. by the death of Thomas Whiteheye, cl. P.—Edwin archbishop of York. Admitted 26 Jan., 1577-8. Mandate to the archdeacon of Lincoln. (P.D., 1577, no. 45; see also page 77).

A.D. 1578.

Martin Houlden,⁸ cl., compounded for the firstfruits of the rectory of Broughton, 26 Nov., 1578. (Comp.).

² No proof of his admission has been found. He did not compound.

³ See Institution Bond 1582, no. 1 (page 284), where he is said to be in possession of the parsonage of Morborn, 9 Feb., 1581-2. He did not compound. His name was written in the L.C. of 1585 (folio 56*d.*), and struck out, and the word 'obit' written against it. Another clerk was instituted 26 May, 1585, on the death of Robert Townesende (Var., folio 150). It was usual for the institution bond to be dated on the day of institution.

⁴ No proof of his admission has been found. He was not rector in 1576 (see page 165).

⁵ There is no evidence of his admission. Boniface Martin, B.A., was admitted 7 April, 1574, on the death of Nicholas Stokes (see page 75 and P.D., 1565, no. 22). Whithaye was vicar of Owston in 1576 (see next entry below, and page 172).

⁶ This should be 'Pilham.'

⁷ This is the same institution as that recorded on page 75, where 'Benjamin' is printed in error for 'Boniface.' The P.D. has come to light as these pages are passing through the press, and it gives more particulars than the Register (see page 75). The long interval between the acts of presentation and institution is remarkable. The date of the deed is not open to question, for it is corroborated by the calendar of Crown Presentations on the Patent Rolls contained in Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 143, which adds that Martin was presented on the petition and recommendation of the bishop of Lincoln.

⁸ No evidence of his admission has been found.

A.D. 1579.

John Savell,⁷ cl., presented 2 May, 1579, to the vic. of Luddington. P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 62).

John Kinge, cl., presented 20 June, 1579, 21 Eliz., to the vic. of Resbie, vac. by the death of William Baysse. P.—John Portyngtone of Sawclife, co. Lincoln, esq., p.j. Admitted and inducted by the bishop July 1. (P.D., 1571, no. 5).

A.D. 1580.

John Sudley, cl., presented 5 Nov., 1580, to the vic. of Willingham⁸ (value 6*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*). P.—the queen. (Lansdowne MS. 443, folio 299).

A.D. 1582.

Robert Shawe, cl., presented 24 May, 24 Eliz. [A.D. 1582], to the rectory of Spredlington, vac. by the death of William Foxcrofte. P.—John Lacy of Breerley in Mydgeley, co. York, esq., p.j. Witnesses—John Lacy, sone and heire apparent of the said John Lacy, Gilbert Lacy of Mydgeley, gent., Henry Bowcocke and Raulf Hibberd of Spredlington, with William Hopkinson, servant to the said John Lacy. Admitted 4 July, 1582. (P.D., 1582, no. 49; see also page 79).

OXFORD COLLEGES.

A.D. 1571.

Deed of John Tunkes, senior fellow of Balliol College, Oxford, and the rest of the fellows of the same, notifying the bishop of Lincoln, since the confirmation of the master or warden of the college by virtue of a certain ordinance (decreti) between John Longly, bishop of Lincoln, and the master and fellows of the college belongs to the bishop, that on 9 May, 13 Eliz. [A.D. 1571], they assembled as a college in the college chapel between the hours of nine and ten in the morning, according to the form of their statutes, have elected Adam Squire, M.A., as master or warden, and praying the bishop to admit him to the said office. Sealed with the common seal of the college, the year and day above written. Endorsed: 13 May, 1571, the within-named Adam was admitted to the said office, having first sworn to renounce every kind of foreign power according to the act of parliament, and to observe the statutes and ordinances of the college, and also to obey the bishop and his successors, etc. And the senior fellow and the rest of the fellows were commanded to induct him, etc. (P.D., 1571, no. 72).

A.D. 1577.

Deed of [the fellows of Lincoln College, Oxford] notifying the bishop of Lincoln that they have elected [John Underhill, S.T.P.¹], to the rectorship of the college, vac. by the death of Master John Tatam, and praying the bishop to admit him. Dated 24 June, 1577. Endorsed: Expedited 29 June, 1577. Lincoln College, Oxford. (P.D., 1577, no. 60).

[END OF ADDITIONAL ADMISSIONS.]

⁷ He was probably never admitted, for Richard Yonge was vicar in 1576 (see page 169), and still held the benefice in 1585 (L.C., folio 21*d.*).

⁸ This is Cherry Willingham, as is shewn by the value of the benefice. Sudley was not vicar in 1585, and no evidence of his admission has been found.

¹ The words in brackets have been supplied from Le Neve, Fasti, vol. iii, page 557. Only half the deed remains, (Prerogative Court of Canterbury, Dixy 44).

In the name of God Amen the 16th day of January in the yere of our Lord God according to the computacion of the Church of England one thousand fyve hundred fower score and thirteene

I Thomas Cooper by the permission of God Bishoppe of Winchester feeling in the state of my bodilye healthe sondrie infirmities incident unto men of my age which I accept and accompte as the loving messengers of the Lord forewarning the shorte and fraile tyme of my contynewaunce in this transitorye life the which I am and shall be by his grace readie at his gratious pleasure willynglye to yeald up being at this present in perfect memorye (the Lord be thanked for yt) do ordeyne and make this my last will and testament in manner and forme folowinge. First I commend my sole unto the handes of my Redemer and my body to the earth from whence yt came. Item I give and bequeath unto the most reverend father the Lord Archbishoppe of Canterburie his grace my white aumblinge gueldinge my best Sadle and the Furniture thereto and my Ringe of Armes. Item I give and bequeath unto the Library of the Cathedrall church of Winchester these bookes viz. Theatrum vite humane of the last edition in fyve volumes, one greate Hebrue Dixionarie in folio and Thesaurus Pagnigni. Item I give and bequeath unto Mr. Doctor Bilson warden of the newe college by Winchester all Chrisostomes workes in folio. Item I give and bequeath unto Thomas Marshall his obligation of one and fortie pounds and I do remitt and release that Summe and debt unto hym. Item I will that all my meniall servauntes which shall be ordinarylie in my house uprising and downelying at the time of my decease shall be kept together in my house and be allowed beyng and contynewaunce there and their ordinarye table as in my life tyme for and during fourteene dayes next after the day of my decease, or els that every of them shalbe alowed their bourde wages in money duringe that tyme after the rate of twelve pence to every of them for every of the saied fourteene dayes at the choice of my executrix hereunder named. Item I do give and bequeath unto Amye Cooper my rightwelbeloved wife all the Bedding and furniture in her owne chamber and the hanginges of the best gwestenchamber over the parlor within my mannor house of Bishoppeswaltham where I nowe keape my houshold and twoe of my gueldinges for her selfe whereof one of those twoe to be the greate duble haye gueldinge on which she useth to ryde and besides those twoe gueldinges for her selfe one other gueldinge for her man. And also I give unto my sayed wife Amye Cooper all leases grauntes assignementes and assurances made unto me or unto me and my sayed wife by my brother in lawe Robert Royse of and in twoe meadowes parcell of the Ferme of Mydly by Oxford. Moreover I give and devise unto my sayed wife all other leases grauntes Assignementes and Assuraunces which I have heretofore procured to be graunted conveyed or assigned to any person or persons to her use And also all obligations wherein any person or persons stand bound unto me with condition to this effect that all their estates in the sayed leases graunte assignement and assurances shalbe to the onlie use behoofe and commoditie of me and my sayed wife or either of us. And also all sommes of money in all and every of the sayed obligacions mencyned and conteyned. All the residue of my goodes and chattells whatsoever my debts and legaceys aforesayed being first payed and satisfyed and my Funerall and other necessarye chardges and expences likewise dischargd I give and bequeath in manner and forme folowing that is to saye One equall third parte or valewe of all the same unto my sayed wife Amye Cooper whom I do constitute and appoynte to be my sole executrix. And one other like equall third parte of all the same unto my daughter Ellizabeth Belly and her husband Mr. Doctor Belly. And the other like equall third parte of all the same unto Mr. John Goldwell my son in lawe late husband of Marye Goldwell my daughter latelie deceased in consideration and to thintent that my sayed sonnes in lawe and either of them shalbe and wilbe ayding and assisting unto my sayed wife after my decease by the advise direction and order of my overseers hereunder named in and aboute all Suites vexacions and troubles that shalbe moued or prosecuted against her as my executrix according to my especiall trust and confidence in them and either of them in that behalfe reposed. And for that my sayed wife and executrix shall not be chardged with anything as my executrix more than my sayed sones in lawe to whom I have devised equall partes with her of all the sayed residue of my goodes and chattells aforesayed And for that my meaninge ys to have the children of my daughters hereafter to be benefited by this my will I do provide and my will and meaning ys that my sayed sones in lawe or either of them shall not receive their sayed severall third partes of the aforesayed residue of my goodes and chattells untill they or either of them shall enter into bond unto my overseers or the survivor of them in such somme of money as my saied overseers or the survivor of them shall thincke meete to this effect viz :— That either of my sayed sonnes in lawe and the executors of either of them shall from tyme to tyme hencefourthe beare susteyne and paye their equall partes and portions of for and concerning all actions sewtes and demaundes to be had commenced prosecuted or recovered agaynst my said executrix for any matter or cause whatsoever touching my last will and testament or touching or concerning her executorshippe And that my sayed sonnes in lawe or either of them shall give and dispose by there last will and testament or otherwise the full valewe of there sayed severall partes of my goodes and chattels by this my will given and disposed unto them as ys aforesayed unto and amongst all or such of thire children by my sayed daughters as they my sayed sonnes in law and either of them shall best like to dispose the same unto. And I do further provide and my will and meaning ys that yf after my decease any varyaunce shall happen to be between my sayed wife and my sayed sonnes in lawe or either of them or their executors for or about the division of my goods and chattells aforesayed by this my will given to be divided between them as is aforesayed That they and every of them shall stand unto and be ruled and ordered by the Order Determinacion and Judgment of my overseers or the suvivor of them in that behalfe. And for that I do greatlie desire that no varyaunce or controversy shall be moved after my decease concerning the state of my goods chattels or credittes or such debts as I do owe unto other persons I have therefor comprised brieflie the the particulars of my cheifest estate and substaunce of all my sayed goods chattells and credittes with my privat estimacion of their value in the schedule hereunto annexed. And I do protest that I am right well assured that I am not indebted to any person due by me to any valewe except yt may be some od trifle to the value of fyve shillings or such like mean some. I appoint the Archbishoppe of Canterburye Mr. Thomas Flemminge esquire Mr. Thomas Bilson warden of St. Mary colledge by Winchester to be the overseers of this my will. APPENDIX V.

SUFFRAGAN BISHOPS IN THE DIOCESE OF LINCOLN IN THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY.

THOMAS FORT OF FORD, BISHOP OF ACHONRY (Achadenis) in Ireland. provided 5 (or 8) Oct., 1492,¹ celebrated orders as suffragan of Lincoln, from 27 Feb., 1495-6, to 15 Feb., 1504-5.² He was commissioned by Smith, at Banbury, 21 April, 1501, to act as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Lincoln, Stow, Leicester and Huntingdon, and in the deanery of Rutland.³ He was also suffragan of Lichfield, 1494-1495; rector of Southwick, 1504; rector of Edmond, 1494. He was also prior of Stone, co. Stafford, 26 Aug., 1493; prior of Huntingdon, 1496; and abbot of Bourne, 21 Jan., 1500-1.⁴ On 3 June, 1501, he was instituted to the rectory of Wilsford, co. Lincoln,⁵ and the next institution to that rectory, 31 Aug., 1505, states that the vacancy was caused by death.⁶

AUGUSTINE CHURCH, BISHOP OF LYDDA in Palestine, 1493,⁷ celebrated orders as suffragan of Lincoln on many occasions from 5 June, 1501, to 27 March, 1512,⁸ and again 22 Dec., 1515.⁹ He was suffragan of Salisbury from 27 Feb., 1493-4, to 1499, and of Exeter, 1493.⁷ He was instituted to the rectory of Washingborough, co. Lincoln, with papal dispensation, 11 May, 1509.¹⁰ The next institution to that rectory is dated 6 July, 1512,¹¹ but the entry does not state the cause of vacancy.

ROGER SMITH, BISHOP OF LYDDA, consecrated 17 April, 1513, under commission of Archbishop Warham to Miles, bishop of Llandaff,¹² celebrated orders as suffragan of Bishop Atwater from 23 Dec., 1514, to 4 March, 1519-20.¹³ He was re-commissioned by Bishop Longland at the Old Temple, London, 9 May, 1521, to act as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Oxford, Bedford and Buckingham,¹⁴ and he celebrated orders in [? June], 1523, at Henley.¹⁵ He was also suffragan of Salisbury 1517-1518, and prior of Ron-ton, co. Stafford. About 1510 he became abbot of Dorchester,¹ and, on his resignation, John Marche was elected as abbot 22 Oct., 1533.² Willis³ says that he died in 1518,⁴ but Cole,⁵ from Willis' own notes on the Mitred Abbies, gives the date as 1535. Willis gives the following epitaph, which was extant at Dorchester in his own time—

⁹ Atwater's Register, folio 117. It is possible that 'Augustine' in this entry is an error for 'Roger.' for Roger Smith became bishop of Lydda in 1513 (see below), and ordained frequently from 1514 to 1520. There seem, however, to have been two contemporaneous bishops of Lydda a few years later (see below).

Hic jacet Rogerus quondam Prior Prioratus de Ronton, co. Staffordiæ, postea Abbas Monasterii de Dorchester, necnon Episcopus Lidensis, cujus animæ propicietur Deus.

It is remarkable that while Smith held the titular see of Lydda, three other persons in England are described by the same title. Augustine Church ordained as bishop of Lydda in 1515 (see above, page 345 and note 9). Thomas Bele was provided for the same see, 7 June, 1521,⁶ and was suffragan of London from 1521 to 1529, celebrating orders on many occasions from 21 Sept., 1521, to 17 Dec., 1529.⁷ He was admitted 11 Nov., 1521, to the prebend of Hoxton in St. Paul's cathedral, and was dead, 5 Aug., 1530, when his successor in the prebend was appointed.⁸ Bele was succeeded as bishop of Lydda by John Holt, who died 12 Aug., 1540, and was buried in the church of St. Mary, Bury St. Edmund's.⁹ Holt's will was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury (10 Alenger), 1540.

JOHN BELL, BISHOP OF MAYO in Ireland, provided 4 Nov., 1493, was suffragan of London 1499, Sarum 1501, Exeter 1501, Lichfield 1503, Canterbury 1503, and Wells 1519.¹⁰ From 27 Feb., 1506-7, until 11 June, 1530, he was continually ordaining as suffragan of Bishops Smith, Wolsey, Atwater and Longland. His commission by Longland is dated at the Old Temple, London, 9 May, 1521, and authorises him to act in the archdeaconries of Northampton, Huntingdon and Leicester.¹¹ He died 1541.¹⁰

JOHN YOUNG, BISHOP OF GALLIPOLI (Calipolensis) in Thrace, consecrated 3 July, 1513, in the church of St. Thomas of Acre, London, by Richard bishop of London, was suffragan of London 1513-1526,¹² and held many other appointments.¹³ He was commissioned by Bishop Longland, 24 Feb., 1524-5, to act as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Northampton, Buckingham and Oxford, and in half of the county of Hertford.¹¹ He celebrated orders as suffragan of Lincoln 11 March, 1524-5, 1 April, 1525, and 24 Feb., 1525-6.¹⁴ He was born at Newton Longville, co. Buckingham, and died 28 March, 1526.¹³

Sea, celebrated orders for Wolsey, while he was bishop of Lincoln, 1 April and 10 June, 1514.¹

JOHN, BISHOP OF ARIO in Crete, was consecrated under commission of Archbishop Warham to Miles, bishop of Llandaff, 5 Dec., 1512.² He ordained as suffragan of Lincoln from 23 April, 1519, to the end of Atwater's episcopate,³ and also, by the authority of the archbishop of Canterbury, during the vacancy that followed.³ He was re-commissioned by Longland, at the Old Temple, London, 12 May, 1521, to act as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stow.⁴ He was instituted to the rectory of Scampton, co. Lincoln, 13 Aug., 1521,⁵ and at the next recorded institution to that benefice, on 19 May, 1522,⁶ the vacancy is stated to have been due to the death of Sir John Rawlynson, which seems, therefore, to have been the bishop's name.

MATTHEW MACKARELL, BISHOP OF CHALCEDON in Bithynia, was provided 28 April, 1524, for York,⁷ and commissioned by Bishop Longland at Lincoln, 13 May, 1535,⁸ having previously, by special mandate, celebrated orders for Longland, 21 Sept., 1532.⁹ He was abbot of Barlings, and was hanged for his share in the Pilgrimage of Grace, 1537.⁷

ROBERT KING, BISHOP OF RHEON in the province of Constantinople, was provided on a reference of Cardinal Campegio for the aid of the see of Lincoln, 7 Jan., 1526-7, being then abbot of Thame.¹⁰ He ordained as suffragan of Lincoln from 18 Sept., 1529, to 25 March, 1542.¹¹ He was the last abbot of Osney, and was made the first bishop of Osney, 1 Sept., 1542. The see, however, was moved to Oxford, 9 June, 1545, and King thus became the first bishop of Oxford. He died 4 Dec., 1557, and was buried in his cathedral.¹²

THOMAS HALAM, S.T.B., was recommended to the pope as suffragan by Longland, 13 May, 1529.¹³ He was an Austin canon, and was elected on the Tuesday after Low Sunday, 1524, as prior of Newstead near Stamford, being described as late sub-prior of the monastery of Leicester.¹⁴ He subscribed to the royal supremacy, 1534, as prior, and died or resigned before 1555.¹⁰ It is not clear by what title he was known, and he does not appear to have ordained for the bishop of Lincoln. Stubbs thinks that he has been confounded with Thomas Swillington¹⁰ (see below).

WILLIAM DUFFIELD, BISHOP OF ASCALON in the province of Palestine I., was commissioned by Bishop Longland, at Woburne Manor, 11 Nov., 1531, as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Leicester, Huntingdon and Bedford, and, for the time being (ad tempus), in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Northampton.¹ He ordained as suffragan of Lincoln 30 March² and 21 Dec.,³ 1532, and 12 April, 1533.⁴ He seems to have been suffragan of York in 1535.⁵ Stubbs⁶ says that he was provided to the see Ascolensis in partibus infidelium, for St. Asaph.

THOMAS SWILLINGTON, D.D., BISHOP OF PHILADELPHIA, prior of the Austin friars at Cambridge,⁶ provided at Rome, 12 July, 1532, for Lincoln,⁵ was commissioned by Bishop Longland, at Wobourne manor, 14 July, 1533, to act as suffragan in the archdeaconries of Lincoln and Leicester.⁷ He ordained as suffragan of Lincoln very frequently from 13 March, 1534-5,⁸ to 4 April, 1545.⁹ On 16 Jan., 1543-4, he was collated to the prebend of Stow in Lindsey,¹⁰ and was installed 12 April, 1544.¹¹ He also became suffragan of London, 21 March, 1533-4.⁵

LEWIS THOMAS, SUFFRAGAN BISHOP OF SHREWSBURY, was consecrated at Lambeth, 24 June, 1537.¹² He celebrated orders as suffragan of Lincoln, 8 March, 1543-4, to 9 April, 1547.¹³

JOHN SALISBURY, SUFFRAGAN BISHOP OF THETFORD, consecrated at Lambeth, 19 March, 1535-6,¹⁴ celebrated orders by the authority of the bishop of Lincoln, 25 March, 1559 (see above, page 186 bis). He was suffragan of Norwich, and in 1571 became bishop of Soda and Man.¹⁴
